Banks to Begin Saturday Closings

Trial Will Be Made During Next Five Months in City

Kingston banking houses beginning Saturday will observe the Saturday closing, which was recently authorized by a state law, and will remain closed all day Saturday for the next five months.

Three of the banks in Kingston will however re-open from 6:45 to 8 p. m. on Friday evenings to serve customers. These three banks are the State of New York National Bank, the Kingston Savings Bank and the Ulster County Savings Institution, all located on Wall street.

All other banks, both commercial and savings, will close at 3 p. m. on Friday afternoons and remain closed until the following Monday morning. The three banks observing Friday evening hours will close at the customary time Friday afternoons and remain closed from 3 p. m. until 6:45 when they will reopen until 8 p. m.

The Saturday closing becomes effective this Saturday and will be continued for the ensuing five months. During that time the effect of Saturday closing will be observed and if it proves advisable the practice will then become permanent. If, however, local conditions appear to point to a need for resumption of Saturday banking hours then an adjustment will be made.

Many Sympathetic Nations Join in Observation of May Day

London, May 1 (AP)—Russia's minister of the armed forces, Nikolai Bulganin, called on the Soviet army, navy and air force today to maintain "their fighting preparedness" in an order of the day issued as millions celebrated May Day—Europe's Labor Day.

Many nations, which have veered to the left since the war, joined with the Russians in observing the day, holding mass rallies and parades in capitals and other cities to coincide with a show of Soviet military strength through Moscow's Red Square.

It was a legal holiday for the first time in Belgium and Norway. Workers in France also got the day off and in Russia a three-day holiday was proclaimed as Moscow set off the biggest May Day celebration there since the war.

The Russian order of the day, broadcast by the Moscow radio, directed that the "international holiday of the working people" be observed by the firing of a salute of 20 artillery salvos in Moscow and a score of other cities.

Evelyn McHale, 25, Says in Note She Wouldn't Make Good Wife

New York, May 1 (AP)—Leaving a note in which she had crossed out, "I don't think I would make a good wife for anyone," a blonde young woman tentatively identified by police as Miss Evelyn McHale, about 25, of 7 Southard street, Baldwin, L. I., plunged from the 86th floor of the Empire State Building to her death this morning, crashing through the roof of a sedan parked on the 33rd street side of the Fifth avenue skyscraper.

Farmers Are Two to Four Weeks Behind in Planting

Washington, May 1 (AP)—May, a vital month in determining the year's crop production, arrived today to find many farmers from two to four weeks late in their spring planting.

As a result the next three weeks will be critical ones. Agricultural Department officials say, from the standpoint of future supplies and prices of food.

Price-conscious officials have been looking to a bumper farm output this year to help reduce the cost of living and halt what they say is a dangerous inflationary trend.

But unseasonably cool, wet weather has kept thousands of farmers in a wide area from the Rocky Mountains to the east coast out of the fields at a time when many should have such important crops as corn, oats, flaxseed, and truck crops already planted. The only really bright spot in the current farm picture is the winter wheat crop. Seeded last fall, this crop came through the cold months in very good shape and is now progressing toward the largest outturn on record.

The spring wheat crop, which normally makes up about one-fourth of total wheat production, has been somewhat less fortunate, due to delays in planting.

Service Is Halted Water Pipe Is Broken

Water service in a small area was interrupted for slightly less than two hours yesterday afternoon when a contractor's shovel hooked onto a service line branching from a main at Washington avenue and North Front street during the digging of an excavation on the North Front street project.

John J. Byrne, superintendent of the water department, said today that the break was not a serious one, but it would have been had the main itself been broken. The break occurred during the digging of a vault for underground electric conduits.

High Wood Quarry Produces Stones For Four Bridges

Bluestone Blocks Will Be Used in Dutchess; Graystone Also Is Shaped

Tons of stone for four bridge projects east of Poughkeepsie, cut at a quarry in High Woods, were ready for shipment this week, it was learned today from George Whitaker, one of the stonecutters in charge.

Many blocks of bluestone from the local quarry and other blocks of graystone from Delaware county have been cut at the quarry during the year. It was expected that shipment of the stone would begin either tomorrow or Monday.

Stonecutter Whitaker is in partnership with Joseph Hallon on the project. They are assisted by one other stonecutter and four general workmen, and they began the work about a year ago.

Most of the smaller blocks are cut from bluestone and the larger from graystone hauled to the High Woods quarry from the East Branch valley of the Delaware river near Downsville.

The bridges to be constructed east of Poughkeepsie will be on two new routes east of the Bridge City, one of which extends into Connecticut. The High Woods project is under supervision of contractors and state highway officials.

Site Sought Here for Big Dept. Store

Three Men Visit City Looking for Place Suitable for New Enterprise

Uptown Ruled Out Central Broadway Cited as Possibility by Visitors

Prospect for a department store in Kingston were at least temporarily stimulated this morning when three men, who declined to reveal their identity, visited Kingston seeking possible sites for establishing a department store. The men sought interviews with Samuel Gold, proprietor of Gold's Reliable Shop on Wall street and Leo Holtz, proprietor of The Smart Shop on Wall street.

During the time they spent in Kingston they were shown through the uptown and central sections of the city and possible sites were discussed.

At the conclusion of the interview the men indicated that at this time they were interested in a location in the "uptown" shopping center although they indicated that the Central Broadway section might be considered a future shopping center.

Did Not Give Affiliation
Whether they were acting on their own behalf or as representatives of department store interests, Mr. Gold said was not revealed by the three men.

Several properties on Wall street were viewed, among them the former Clermont Hall property at Wall and John street. After inspecting the properties in the shopping center area the men indicated that there apparently was no single property in the present shopping center which provided sufficient space for a department store or held out any possibility for future expansion.

Kingston has been without a large, complete department store for many years and from time to time interest in establishing a complete department store under one roof has been discussed by local merchants and shoppers alike. Merchants of the city are of the opinion that a large complete department store in Kingston would increase the city's popularity as a shopping center and at various times interests have sought to bring such an enterprise to town or to enlist local capital for the opening of such a venture.

Mr. Gold did not indicate whether the men who surveyed Kingston today intended to return but he stated the men appeared interested and indicated that Kingston had impressed them as a possible site for a department store.

V.A. Announces New Hospital Rule
Physicians' Decision No Longer Required on Disability

A change announced by the Veterans' Administration, concerning hospital admission, will benefit 300 New York state ex-servicemen awaiting treatment, according to Edward P. O'Dell, Kingston contact office representative.

The new policy gives a priority to veterans whose disabilities are presumed to be service-connected even before that fact has been definitely established by V.A. physicians, Mr. O'Dell said.

Previous to the new ruling, veterans had to wait for hospitalization until V.A. doctors made final decision as to whether or not their disabilities or illnesses were service-connected.

Under the new rules, Mr. O'Dell explained, emergency veteran patients are admitted to V.A. hospitals first; those with definite service-connected conditions second; those with presumed service-connected conditions third, and veterans whose conditions are not service-connected last.

Under the old system, he said, no distinction was made between veterans whose conditions were not service-connected and those whose conditions were presumed by V.A. doctors to be service-connected, although not officially decided as such by the V.A.

The administration has made this change to insure fairness in the order of admitting veteran patients to V.A. hospitals, Mr. O'Dell stated. Veterans who desire hospitalization through the administration may apply at the Kingston contact office, corner of Fair and John streets.

Four Persons Are Killed In Pennsylvania Wreck

Steel Rods Protruding From Gondola Car Are Blamed; Impact Rips Open Passenger Coach of Express Train

Huntingdon Pa., May 1 (AP)—Steel plates protruding from a moving freight train early today ripped a hole in the side of the Pennsylvania railroad's flyer The American and wrecked another freight, killing four persons and injuring 40 others.

The freak crash occurred five miles west of here at 1:47 a. m. (Eastern Standard Time) as two 16-foot long sheets of steel, laid lengthwise aboard an open gondola of a westbound freight, shifted suddenly so that their ends stuck out over adjoining tracks on either side.

Into one of these obstructions plunged the New York to St. Louis sleeper-coach passenger train, also westbound on the parallel tracks. Ends of the inch-thick steel bit into the fourth passenger car, tearing a tremendous hole in its side. The engine, mail car and another coach also were damaged.

Moments later another freight moving east smashed into the steel protruding from the other side, sending the engine and tender crashing from the tracks and temporarily tying up all four main tracks of the P.R.R.

All dead and injured in the third fatal collision on the P.R.R.'s Middle Pennsylvania Division in three months were riding the passenger train. Casualties were rushed to Huntingdon Hospital and to the Altoona Hospital 30 miles to the east. Many of the casualties were military service personnel.

Only victim identified immediately was Joseph Schinick Jr., 18-year old soldier from Pleasant Gap, Pa. The three others killed were two servicemen and a woman.

The freight on which the steel was loaded was traveling west. There were 65 cars making up this freight. The steel was six feet by four feet by one inch.

Occurred at Doyler Ridge
The collision took place at Doyler Ridge, four miles west of Huntingdon as the P.R.R. line wound through the rolling hills of central Pennsylvania.

Sixteen N.F.T.W. Members Are Still Striking in City
Sixteen local members of the American Union of Telephone Workers, which is affiliated with the National Federation of Telephone Workers, were still on strike today, awaiting settlement at Washington of their dispute with management, as the Associated Press reported company proposals for other unions before 9,000 upstate employees today.

The proposals of wage increases range from $3 to $5 a week, the Associated Press report from Albany said. They were accepted last night by representatives of the three unaffiliated unions; the Commercial Employees Association of the upstate area, the Traffic Employees Association, and the Upstate Telephone Employees Association.

Telephone operators are members of the Traffic Employees Association and will be affected by whatever decision is made on the company proposals.

Miss Helen Barry, spokesman for local members of the A.U.T.W., said today that no further action was expected locally pending decision at Washington of the strike in which the 16 local A. T. W. members were involved.

Cement Manufacturer Says Company Sought to Include Factor of Ability

Atlas Takes Stand

Hudson Company Will Not Give Overtime to Night Crews

Catskill, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—Fifteen hundred A.F.L. cement workers in nine plants in New York and Maine struck today, union officials said, in a dispute over seniority rights.

The strike followed a breakdown in union-management negotiations last night.

Howard Rowell, business agent of District 8, United Cement, Lime and Gypsum Workers, said the union sought renewal of seniority clauses in contracts which expired April 1 and which had been extended 30 days.

At the same time, Rowell announced new contracts continuing provisions of former agreements and providing a wage increase of 15 cents an hour were signed with the Glens Falls Portland Cement Co., Glens Falls, and the Federal Portland Cement Co., Buffalo. He said the agreements covered about 150 workers at each plant.

District 8 plants where workers were on strike, Rowell said, were the Lawrence Portland Cement Co., at Thomaston, Me., and these plants in New York: North American Cement Corp., at Catskill and at Howes Cave; Alpha Portland Cement Co., at Catskill and at Catskill; Lone Star Cement Co., at Hudson; Louisville Cement Corp., at Akron and at Dixie Cement Corp., near Ithaca.

Asks Renewal
Rowell said the union asked renewal of clauses governing promotions, layoffs and increasing the plant forces on a seniority basis.

A spokesman for the North American Cement Corp., which has plants at Catskill and Howes Cave, said the management sought to include the ability factor in promotions and restoring of jobs.

The spokesman said also at issue was a union demand for time-and-a-half pay for employees who work more than the day shift. The plants operate on a 24-hour basis.

At Hudson, an official of the Universal Atlas Cement Company said the management had offered to renew the former contract but would not agree to the union request for time-and-a-half for other than day-shift workers.

Rowell said most mills had offered a 15-cent an hour wage increase asked by A.F.L. unions in the industry. Base pay under the previous contracts was 85 cents an hour.

Not affected by the strike were two plants in District 8 of the Lehigh Portland Cement Co., where present contracts are effective until May 15, the union said. The plants are at Catskill and Buffalo.

At the Penn-Dixie Cement Corp. plant near Ithaca, 15 workers walked out at midnight and 135 additional employees failed to report for work today, Plant Superintendent H. Struckmann reported.

Ansonia Schools Are Opened Again

Teachers Accept Board Offer; Benefits Are Granted

Ansonia, Conn., May 1 (AP)—School bells rang with authority here today as Ansonia's two high and seven elementary schools, shut since the mass resignation of 110 teachers in a salary dispute on April 21, opened for the 2,300 pupils.

The Teachers League Salary Committee beat the deadline set by Mayor Thomas J. Nelligan by just 11 hours in accepting the Board of Education's seven-point "final offer" at 11:20 last night. Following the committee's decision to accept, 75 teachers were hastily rounded up and brought to city hall where they quickly voted 73 to 2 to approve the committee's action and return to work this morning.

The proposal, titled "Final offer of the Ansonia Board of Education to the Ansonia Teachers League," bore the signatures of Mayor Nelligan and Dr. Frank Alu, president of the Board of Education. The proposal as approved by the teachers provides for a salary increase of $100 on 1946-47 contracts and an increase of $400 on 1947-48 contracts with an additional $100 on 1948-49 contracts.

A $100 increase on a new salary schedule to be negotiated if and when state aid becomes available. No loss of pay provided teachers complete 180 days by June 30. (Teachers estimate that they have completed 140 days to date).

All teachers to be rehired and given new contracts for 1946-47 and 47-48.

A minimum salary schedule for high schools of $4,000 and for elementary schools of $3,600.

New salary schedules to be contingent on the availability of sufficient state aid.

The Advanced Police Training Course, held in the Ulster County Court House each Wednesday afternoon and evening, was highlighted yesterday afternoon by a lecture on burglary and the current status of surplus fire arms by Special Agent Lee Rumans of the New York F.B.I. office.

Originally instituted under the sponsorship of the New York State Sheriffs' Association, the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police and the F.B.I., the primary purpose of the weekly sessions is to acquaint the city's law enforcers with advanced knowledge of a variety of fundamentally important police problems.

The sponsors have maintained their efforts in securing a different highly experienced lecturer for each week's discussion.

Subjects varying from penal laws, burglary, interviews and confessions to crime prevention and public relations also feature defensive tactics of seizure and arrest under separate consideration.

The average attendance at these classes has been 70, and the fact that this figure has not dropped after three courses bears out the contention that this necessity for further training is meeting with great success.

LET'S EAT!

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

During National Baby Week, try serving vegetable plates to the toddler set. They thrive on them.

Here's a menu that looks very grown-up—but it's for toddlers. Mother, however, can enjoy it, too.

Menu: Orange beets en casserole, creamed spinach, chopped green beans, egg yolk, Goldenrod, zwieback, toasted with fortified margarine, fruit whip, milk.

Arrange neatly: A ribbon of serving of orange beets, beside a ribbon of spinach and a ribbon of beans. Press hard-cooked egg yolk through wire strainer into high pile directly onto the dinner plate. Serve hot.

Orange Beets En Casserole
(Serves child and 2 adults)
Two (4½-oz.) cans strained beets, ½ cup orange juice, 2 teaspoons sugar, ¼ cup baby cereal, 1 tablespoon fortified margarine, 1 orange, sectioned.

Turn strained beets, orange juice, 1 teaspoon of the sugar and cereal into a small baking dish. Top with orange sections; dot top with margarine; sprinkle with remaining teaspoon sugar. Bake 20 minutes in quick oven (375 degrees F.).

Creamed Spinach
One jar strained spinach, 1 tablespoon fortified margarine, 1 tablespoon flour, ½ cup milk, ¼ teaspoon salt, dash powdered nutmeg.

Melt margarine; add flour, mix smooth. Add milk, salt. Stir over low heat until thick and smooth. Add spinach; heat gently. Add delicate sprinkling of nutmeg. Serve piping hot.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Grapefruit juice, corn flakes, fried pressed oatmeal, butter or fortified margarine, honey, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON FOR TODDLER AND MOTHER: Orange beets en casserole, creamed spinach, chopped green beans, egg yolk, Goldenrod, zwieback, toasted with butter or fortified margarine, fruit whip, coffee, milk.

DINNER: Tomato juice, pan-broiled chopped beef patties, mashed potatoes, creamed onions and peas, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, rhubarb pie, cheese, coffee, milk.

Ideal for Summer Use

It won't be long before you take up your winter rugs and draperies and get the house ready for summer. Have enough lightweight rugs to go around? If not, now's the time to get busy and do something about it. Make your own, of course! You'll save money and have fun, besides.

One reason handmade rugs are so popular is that you can plan just the color combinations wanted. With the aid of color remover and new dyes, you can salvage discarded sweaters, dresses, blankets, even stockings—and turn them into real decorative assets.

Too, handmade rugs can be the exact size and shape needed to fit a specific spot. In fact, an additional hooked rug can be adapted to any space just by removing or adding blocks.

Hooked rugs are among the many popular types included in our 40-page Reader Service booklet, No. 94. Also instructions for making woven, crocheted, braided, knitted, tufted rugs—over 20 different designs in all. More than 50 helpful illustrations!

Send 25 cents (coin) for "New Ideas for Handmade Rugs" to Kingston Daily Freeman, Reader Service, 243 West 17th street, New York 11, N. Y. Print name, address, booklet title and No. 94.

Brayton Gets 30 Days For Striking Gunnison

City Judge Matthew V. Cahill today sentenced Joseph Brayton, 41, of 55 Washington avenue to 30 days in jail on an assault charge. Brayton was arrested at 9:20 p. m. Wednesday by Officers Kenneth Hyatt and Leonard Ellsworth, on a second degree assault charge, following a complaint that he had struck Roy Gunnison, 177 Green street, during an altercation on North Front street.

A report that a knife was used in the assault was without sufficient support in court this morning, Judge Cahill said. Gunnison reported that he suffered a laceration under the chin.

Ansonia Schools Are Opened Again

Teachers Accept Board Offer; Benefits Are Granted

Ansonia, Conn., May 1 (AP)—School bells rang with authority here today as Ansonia's two high and seven elementary schools, shut since the mass resignation of 110 teachers in a salary dispute on April 21, opened for the 2,300 pupils.

The Teachers League Salary Committee beat the deadline set by Mayor Thomas J. Neilligan by just 11 hours in accepting the Board of Education's seven-point "final offer" at 11:20 last night. Following the committee's decision to accept, 75 teachers were hastily rounded up and brought to city hall where they quickly voted 73 to 2 to approve the committee's action and return to work this morning.

The proposal, titled "Final offer of the Ansonia Board of Education to the Ansonia Teachers League" born the signatures of Mayor Neilligan and Dr. Frank Ali, president of the Board of Education. The proposal as approved by the teachers provides for a salary increase of $100 on 1946-47 contracts and an increase of $400 on 1947-48 contracts with an additional $100 on 1948-49 contracts.

A $100 increase on a new salary schedule to be negotiated if and when state aid becomes available. No loss of pay provided teachers complete 180 days by June 30. (Teachers estimate that they have completed 140 days to date).

All teachers to be rehired and given new contracts for 1946-47 and 47-48.

A minimum salary schedule for high schools of $4,000 and for elementary schools of $3,600.

New salary schedules to be contingent on the availability of sufficient state aid.

Sixteen N.F.T.W. & T. employees are involved.

Terms of the agreement, announced in a company-union statement, must be ratified by the membership of the three upstate unions.

The unions include all but plant and maintenance employees whose independent organization, the Empire Telephone Workers Union, called off a strike after five days and agreed to arbitration of pay raise and other demands.

Three unions involved in current negotiations took no part in the nationwide strike of telephone workers.

Under the company proposal, wage increases would be retroactive to March 13, the date of contract expirations. Provisions concerning vacations, overtime pay and night differentials also are included.

Acceptance of company proposals upstate followed agreement on a $4 weekly wage boost for striking New York city employees of the company yesterday.

The New York Telephone Company serves most of New York State. Independent companies serving Jamestown and Rochester reached agreements with striking employees in those cities.

Telephone service, except for emergency calls, has been suspended since April 8 in several northern and central New York counties where about 300 members of a national federation of telephone workers affiliate are on strike against the independent upstate telephone company.

Saugerties Senior Class To Hold Ball on Friday

Final preparations have been completed by Saugerties High School Senior Class for the annual ball to be held in the school auditorium tomorrow night.

Vince Edwards and his orchestra will furnish music, from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. Punch will be served.

The theme adopted by the decorations committee this year is strictly oriental, depicting the scenic beauty of Chinese representations and symbolisms. Festoons of colorful balloons, lanterns and national caricatures adorn the ceiling and walls of the ballroom.

A slow drifting of the balloons from the ceiling on the dancing couples will climax the evening's activities.

Oils, Watercolors To Be Exhibited At New Paltz Show

A variety of oil and water color paintings, the combined efforts of more than 30 Woodstock and Dutchess county artists, will be on display in the social room of New Paltz State Teachers College from May 4 to May 18. Art-lovers are urged to attend the opening from 3 to 5 Sunday afternoon.

John Harrison, supervisor of art at the college, is arranging the exhibit to enable visitors to view the fine results of New York state artists. He expressed the hope that this first venture will meet with success and eventually lead to a series of annual exhibits.

Assisting Mr. Harrison with the selection and arrangement of the paintings are the faculty wives of the college and campus school. Miss Joan Gutz and Miss Edith Holt, also of the faculty.

PUSHING THE PEACE

Secretary of State George C. Marshall reported by radio recently on the Moscow conference. In a frank talk he explained to the American people in what respects the conference had succeeded; notably in better understanding of the situation as a whole by all the four powers there represented. The respects in which it failed—that is, in making permanent settlements of pressing problems—were also explained. At this point Marshall quoted Stalin, who had told him in private discussion that there was no cause for despair of getting together. Stalin's explanation of the Russian point of view was that people must argue and debate and bring out all the possibilities until they become exhausted. Then, and then only, are they ready for compromise. This point would surely be reached, Stalin intimated, and settlements could then follow.

Marshall was willing to be quite fair about the difficulties of the settlements. But he was firm in his declaration to his own people that while the Russians argued on in the direction of the exhaustion point, Germany was deteriorating, all Europe was deteriorating likewise, and with it the world. Marshall believed that if there are any possibilities of going forward without Russian compromise, these possibilities should be investigated by other powers, and action should be taken to get Europe out of its doldrums and into the wind.

Patience and firmness were deemed necessary by Byrnes. Both have been used by Marshall. There is a point, however, where patience ceases to be a virtue. That point may not quite have been reached, but it is in sight. Russia must soon realize that she must come in with the other powers or let them proceed without her. Marshall did much, in Moscow and in his report to Americans, to make this clear.

WHAT FREE ENTERPRISE MEANS

President Truman recently gave one of the best descriptions ever made of what the free competitive enterprise means when he said: "Under that system each man is free to go where he likes, to follow the calling of his choice, and to be rewarded in proportion to the productivity of the effort or the property he contributes."

That is an extremely accurate definition, and it covers a great deal of ground in a very few words. Under free enterprise, the man who invests capital as well as the man who invests his labor in an enterprise is entitled to whatever reward he is able to earn. Under free enterprise, every man is entitled to pursue any lawful undertaking, free of dictatorship and coercion by capital, labor or government. Under free enterprise, the freedom of the individual must be inviolate.

Carrying the definition farther, it obviously means that government shall not unnecessarily interfere in the affairs of its citizens. Its function is to establish and enforce a set of rules to fit the conduct of our economic life—and then to permit the players in the game to do whatever they may please within those rules. If a man loses, he has a right to the gain.

Finally, under this or any workable definition of free enterprise, government must keep out of business. Socialized enterprise and free enterprise cannot long exist side by side. The first will swallow the other, and then all basic freedoms will be lost. That fact is implicit in President Truman's first statement.

The Kingston Y.M.C.A. is an institution which is worthy of generous support by the people of this community, because it provides recreation facilities and clean fun for its youth. The current financial drive affords all an opportunity to share in this worthwhile endeavor.

'These Days'

By George E. Sokolsky

PERNICIOUS ABSTRACTIONS

The sum total of George Marshall's speech amounts to this: The Russians like the European situation as it is and seek to delay change. They have been able at Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam to achieve major advantages which they do not wish to change. Marshall says, at one point, "All efforts to find a compromise solution were unavailing." The fact is that every compromise would free some people now enslaved. Why should the slaveholder wish to compromise his holdings?

Diplomacy is the art of achieving the minutest results by means of the widest compromises. When a country chooses not to compromise in all, it gives evidence, one that it is satisfied with the status quo, or two, that it anticipates an inevitable war and prefers not to delay it.

The second alternative is not within the realm of reason. Soviet Russia cannot afford a war today. But Soviet Russia believes that we cannot afford a war today. The Russian, in such a war would have no major allies, but the Russian is convinced that our major allies, Great Britain and France, have lost their vitality. The Russians are physically incapable of making war on a modern basis unaided by a great industrial power. After all, it was $11,000,000,000 of Lend-Lease from the United States to Soviet Russia that threw the balance against industrialized Germany. In a war against the United States today, no nation exists that can assist Russia with an industrial product of dimensions sufficient to matter. That may not be true 10, 15, or 20 years from now. It is true today.

The Russians therefore are not uncompromising because they seek to provoke a war immediately. They do not expect a war immediately. They count its occurrence. They assume that public opinion in this country would not tolerate it. They feel that the reason that our government has agreed to their most outrageous demands was because American public opinion favors Soviet Russia and not the Government of the United States. Gromyko said as much to Bernard Baruch during the atomic bomb debates at the United Nations. Gromyko insisted that Baruch did not have American public opinion behind him.

They are uncompromising because they anticipate a series of disasters in the United States which will so reduce the might of this country as to make the United States a negligible factor in world affairs. In these assumptions, the Russians have been supported by the Wallace hybrids, who have preached disaster since V-J Day. It was Henry Wallace who released phony figures through his Department of Commerce that sent this country into its first round of post-war strikes that nearly did produce disaster. This school of thought has been born by month prophesying recessions and depressions with the apparent hope that disaster would come that they might be proved right. Not only the Russians but all Europeans have noted their statements but have not been able to gauge how much of American opinion they represent.

In accordance with the Marxian economy, no capitalist could shoulder the burden of this crisis. The economic downfall of Great Britain has encouraged the Marxists to assume that their postulate of inevitability will ultimately send the United States to bankruptcy. The Russians are, of course, not averse to using whatever means are available to assist the inevitable process. In the United States, they have legalized the Fifth Column, the Communist Party, and a disguised mass force, the Front Movements, to achieve their ends. The leadership of this amalgam of wreckers has fallen to Henry Wallace who, to encompass One World, encourages every force in American life whose goal is the destruction of American life. It is amazing how strong in him is the instinct for national suicide.

And so, the Russians expecting this country to suffer 10,000,000 unemployed in short order, to be accompanied by a plague of strikes and riots and disorders, resulting in our productivity falling short and our standard of life down to the European level, saw no need for coming to terms with George Marshall. They prefer to wait until hell pops.

And what if it should wait till the opposite? (Copyright, 1947, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

FACTS ABOUT CANCER

Despite the fact that the cause of cancer is unknown, and the number of cases is increasing because men and women live longer than at any previous period in the world's history, there is now a definite decrease in the number of deaths from cancer in women. This is because X-rays and radium curing cancer in its early stages. Women, instead of hiding their symptoms, now consult their physicians before the disease has advanced too far for successful treatment. Notwithstanding this encouraging fact, cancer still stands first as the cause of death in women between the ages of 35 to 54.

Even in men, at what is called the cancer age, 40 to 60, there has been a decrease in the death rate during the past 10 years. This is due to early recognition of cancer and the use of X-rays, radium, and surgery.

If we could all recognize the fact that the life span is now 66 years instead of the 50 at the beginning of the century, we would not feel so discouraged about cancer. The increased life span, about 16 years, includes the ages at which cancer is most common. Yet, despite this cancer age fact, our cancer societies and insurance companies are waging a determined and to some extent—a successful warfare against cancer.

Another encouraging fact pointed out by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, in a booklet on cancer, is that while cancer stands only second to heart disease as a cause of death, this is due to a decrease in the death rate from certain other diseases that formerly stood ahead of cancer as a cause of death, rather than any great increase in the death rate of cancer. Two of these diseases, formerly fatal within months or a few years, are diabetes and pernicious anemia, now controlled by insulin and liver extract, respectively.

The thought for all of us, then, is to always remember that early cancer is curable, late cancer fatal. That any persistent indigestion, any blood or discharge from any organ, any continuous hoarseness or any change in a mole should be immediately investigated.

TOO MANY GRASS FIRES

The large number of grass fires in this city this month has cost the taxpayers a considerable amount of money. Property owners burning off dry grass in the spring should use the utmost care in controlling the fire they start. Boys, too, should be made to realize that starting a grass fire may be very dangerous.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Although the voters last fall expressed a plain demand for laws to protect themselves, as workers, from oppression by union officials, the Congress was immediately opposed on the ground that somehow all this was the doing of the Tories, the reactionaries and the National Association of Manufacturers.

For refutation, let us consider the Barnes Bill in Massachusetts. The Barnes Bill required only that unions file financial statements with the commonwealth.

This reform is meager, because it does not restrict the uses of union money nor forbid such familiar rackets as the permit fee, the prohibitive initiation fee, political assessments or enormous fines imposed to drive out troublesome members. Unions still bring financial statements may still bestow "substantial" checks, or grafting officials by vote of their executive councils in "appreciation" of their invaluable services. The bosses may still vote themselves birthday presents, winter homes in Florida and bonuses, as they have done for many years.

Clarence A. Barnes, the attorney general of Massachusetts, had seen the union bug and shaken down at its worst. During the war some little Massachusetts locals in the construction trades suddenly found suckers coming their way in droves. Big construction jobs were spotted in sparsely settled areas and thousands of men who came from far away to buy work permits from the resident locals. When the transients drifted away, the locals could declare dividends among the few permanent members, or where racketeers ran the locals, they could divide the surplus. The permit or initiation fees seldom were less than $50, even for common laborers. They ran as high as $300 for electricians. This condition existed almost everywhere. It was exposed in Congress, but it was protected to the very end and hundreds of millions of dollars vanished into the pockets of predatory locals and racketeers.

Mr. Barnes presented two bills to the Legislature regarding union funds. One forbade political contributions by unions. The other required unions to file financial statements.

Both bills were beaten in the Legislature and Mr. Barnes carried them to the people by referendum.

The State Supreme Court ruled out the bill forbidding political contributions on constitutional laws. The other one was placed on the ballot and unions immediately began pouring money into the fall campaign of 1946 to beat it.

"In New Bedford," wrote Charles J. Lewin, the editor of the Standard-Times and Morning Mercury, "union members employed by one big company refused to pay a special assessment to fight the Barnes Bill. The head of a workers' local announced that the local supported the bill and he was expelled from the Central Labor Union."

The voters gave the Barnes Bill a majority of about 2 to 1. This ratio held even in the strongly organized cities. In New Bedford, the vote was 21,000 to 7,400; in Lynn, 17,778 to 10,157; in Fall River, 19,573 to 5,272; in Haverhill, 6,522 to 3,655; in Lawrence, 11,369 to 7,503.

Obviously this was a more significant vote than the majorities in favor of open-shop amendments in southern and western states where unions were not entrenched. This was strong union country and still the rank and file voted for accountability. This was rebellion among the workers.

Undoubtedly, if the Supreme Court had not ruled out the proposal, that too would have passed. The unionists against all the old, stock arguments against accountability. They emphasized the one about the need of secrecy to conceal the weakness of unions from the employers. However, the rank and file knew that they had been thrown out for supporting Mr. Barnes' program, organized a group of truck drivers to pass out handbills.

They were photographed under a big poster which read: "Guys like me pay $24,000,000 a year to like unions in Massachusetts, only the union bug knows how it's used. I'd like to know, too. That's why I am going to vote yes."

This was only one contest among many in which the boss unionists were snowed under in the election returns the first time the rank and file had a chance. But it happened in Massachusetts, a strong union state, and the Barnes Bill could not have passed if the contemptible faceless man had been against it.

Washington Winks At Non-Political Talk About Mead

Whatever Occurs, Public
Need Not Worry How He Will Manage to 'Get By'

By JAMES C. MUNN
(AP Special Washington Service)

Washington, May 1 — Former Senator Jim Mead will tell with a perfectly straight face that those bees buzzing around his bonnet aren't political.

Maybe so, but gossip Washington winks at such talk. Too many rumors, most of them political, circulate freely about the lean, graying Buffalo Democrat.

Even before Mead was defeated in last fall's New York gubernatorial election by Republican Thomas E. Dewey, conjecture began as to what the future held in store for him.

One report had it that he would succeed Robert E. Hannegan as postmaster general; another that he would accept a lucrative position in private industry. Still another said he would become commissioner of the All America Professional Football Conference.

Right now, talk is heard that he may be a candidate next year for the House seat held by Republican John C. Butler of Buffalo who represents New York's 44th Congressional District.

That's probably as baseless as the other rumors thus far have proved to be. Actually, there isn't one solid hint as to what Mead himself may have in mind for the future.

"No, Sir, Not a Thing"

Try putting the question to him directly. Here's the answer: "The future? Honestly, I haven't a thing planned. No, sir, not a thing."

Right now, Mead says, he is concerned only with cleaning up voluminous files that have accumulated in more than 30 years of political life.

Mead, who will be 62 on December 27, is guaranteed a modest financial future. If he chooses he can do ever better.

As a participant in New York's pension fund for former state employees, he receives $4,535 annually for the rest of his life.

That, coupled with private investments he has made—such as his interest in the Buffalo International League baseball club—insures against the wolf from clawing too sharply at his door.

He has still another source of possible revenue—a federal pension for which he will be eligible when he reaches 62. This would be in addition to his state benefits.

In Mead's case the federal pen-

Episcopal Bishops Ask Funds Be Used To Give Education

Geneva, N. Y., May 1 (AP) — Protestant Episcopal bishops of the second province ask that "public funds be used only for public education."

The bishops took the stand in a resolution, adopted yesterday at the close of a three-day conference, calling upon Episcopal clergy and laity to oppose use of public funds for sectarian educational purposes. It endorsed the stand previously taken by the National Council of the Episcopal church.

The Rt. Rev. Alfred L. Bayard, suffragan bishop of New Jersey, was elected secretary of the province which includes six New York state dioceses, two in New Jersey and the dioceses of Puerto Rico, Haiti, the Dominican Republic and the Panama Canal zone.

His years of government service, would approximate $3,332. Therefore, if he elects to participate, his total annual pension income would be $10,074.

Senatorial pensions are a hush-hush affair. It's next to impossible to get any reliable information that a particular senator is receiving one. The Senate disbursing office is under strict orders for silence, as is the pension refunds division of the Civil Service Commission.

LET'S EAT!

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

During National Baby Week, try serving vegetable plates to the toddler set. They thrive on them.

Here's a menu that looks very grownup—but it's for toddlers. Mother, however, can enjoy it, too.

Menu: Orange beets en casserole, creamed spinach, chopped green beans, egg yolk, Goldenrod, zwieback, toasted with fortified margarine, fruit whip, milk.

Arrange neatly: A ribbon of serving of orange beets, beside a ribbon of spinach and a ribbon of beans. Press hard-cooked egg yolk through wire strainer into high pile directly onto the dinner plate. Serve hot.

Orange Beets En Casserole

(Serves child and 2 adults)
Two (4½-oz.) cans strained beets, ½ cup orange juice, 2 teaspoons sugar, ½ cup baby cereal, 1 tablespoon fortified margarine, 1 orange, sectioned.

Turn strained beets, orange juice, 1 teaspoon of the sugar and cereal into a small baking dish. Top with orange sections; dot top with margarine; sprinkle with remaining teaspoon sugar. Bake 20 minutes in quick oven (375 degrees F.).

Creamed Spinach

One jar strained spinach, 1 tablespoon fortified margarine, 1 tablespoon flour, ½ cup milk, ½ teaspoon salt, dash powdered nutmeg.

Melt margarine; add flour, mix smooth. Add milk, salt. Stir over low heat until thick and smooth. Add spinach; heat gently. Add delicate sprinkling of nutmeg. Serve piping hot.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Grapefruit juice, corn flakes, fried pressed oatmeal, butter or fortified margarine, honey, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON FOR TODDLER AND MOTHER: Orange beets en casserole, creamed spinach, chopped green beans, egg yolk, Goldenrod, zwieback, toasted with butter or fortified margarine, fruit whip, coffee, milk.

DINNER: Tomato juice, pan-broiled chopped beef patties, mashed potatoes, creamed onions and peas, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, rhubarb pie, cheese, coffee, milk.

MAKE YOUR OWN RUGS
Ideal for Summer Use
I won't be long before you take up your winter rugs and draperies and get the house ready for summer. Have enough lightweight rugs to go around? If not, now's the time to get busy and do something about it. Make your own, of course! You'll save money and have fun, besides.

One reason handmade rugs are so popular is that you can plan just the color combinations wanted. With the aid of color remover and new dyes, you can salvage discarded sweaters, dresses, blankets, even stockings — and turn them into real decorative assets.

Too, handmade rugs can be the exact size and shape needed to fit a specific spot. In fact, an add-a-lock hooked rug can be adapted to any space just by removing or adding blocks.

Hooked rugs are among the many popular types included in our 40-page Reader Service booklet No. 94. Also instructions for making woven, crocheted, braided, knitted, tufted rugs—over 20 different designs in all. More than 50 helpful illustrations!

Send 25 cents (coin) for "New Ideas for Handmade Rugs" to Kingston Daily Freeman, Reader Service, 243 West 17th street, New York 11, N. Y. Print name, address, booklet title and No. 94.

One of the most remarkable victories in years in the Vanderbilt Cup Tournament was this year's win by Harry J. Fishbein, Harry Feinberg, Joseph E. Low, and Larry Hirsch, all of New York, and David Clarren of St. Paul, Minn. This was not one of the seeded teams, and consequently they were scheduled to play the favorites in the semi-finals.

They defeated the favorites in this round, even in the qualifying rounds, right up to the finals. In the finals they were behind at the end of the first quarter, picked up a little but were still minus at the half, then lost some more points in the third quarter. They went into the final quarter 1020 points behind, with only fourteen boards to play, and they won the tournament by 1510 points.

Fishbein, who is a great card analyst, gave me today's hand, and I think you will like the play in it. Dummy played low on the opening heart lead, and most West players probably would win the trick with the king and return the seven of hearts, which lets declarer make the contract.

Fishbein's team defeated the hand when West played the seven of hearts on the first trick. Declarer won with the queen, led the queen of spades and took the finesse.

West won and led back the king of hearts. He had to get in again with either the ace of clubs or a diamond, and when he did, he led back the deuce of hearts. This gave East and West a spade, a club, and three heart tricks.

SATURDAY BANK CLOSINGTo the Public:

Pursuant to the new law which permits Banks in the State of New York to close on Saturdays, our Main Banking House and Central Branch will close at 3 P. M. on Friday afternoon of each week during the months of May to September inclusive, 1947, and remain closed until the following Monday morning.

We believe that this test period of Saturday closing and the reaction to it of our patrons will demonstrate whether or not this policy should be made permanent. If we find that our customers are unduly inconvenienced thereby, we will abandon such policy. In event no such inconvenience results, Saturday closing will probably be made permanent by us.

During this test period we request our patrons to inform us how Saturday closing affects them and to frankly express to us their opinions as to whether such policy should be abandoned or continued by us.

Dewey's Aid Asked In Robeson CaseCivil Rights Committee Is Formed in Albany to Oppose Board

Albany, N. Y., May 1 (P)—The newly-organized Albany Committee for Civil Rights wants Governor Dewey to oppose the city Board of Education's ban on use of a school auditorium for a recital by Paul Robeson, Negro baritone, May 9.

A resolution adopted by 200 representatives of church, civic and labor union groups, who formed the organization last night, urged Dewey to speak out against what they termed "this fundamental violation of constitutional liberties in the capital of the state of New York."

Other resolutions called upon Mayor Erastus Corning and the Board of Education to rescind the ban and invited Robeson to sing on the steps of the State Capitol if the auditorium's use is denied him.

Corning, defeated Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor last fall, has said he was "entirely in accord" with the board's action and that he brought Robeson's scheduled concert to the board's attention.

The board must show cause in State Supreme Court at Kingston tomorrow why it should not be enjoined permanently from interfering with the concert in Philip Livingston Junior High School.

The court order was obtained by the Carver Cultural Society of a Negro Methodist church group sponsoring Robeson's appearance.

The board rescinded permission for the use of the auditorium last week after the House Committee on Un-American Activities had linked Robeson to organization al-

Arthur J. Harvey, attorney for the Carver Society, characterized the banning of the school auditorium to Robeson as an attack on the Negro race.

"The trend of Fascist tendencies has been apparent in Albany for many years," Harvey said. "This is a question of racial discrimination and we doubt the city officials would treat a white organization this way. It is time this business about Robeson is stopped and stopped here."

People wouldn't think of reading by candlelight in this modern age of electricity...

and Millions of Women wouldn't think of Laundering without Clorox...

When you've used Clorox your senses say—and rightly so—"now, there's a wash to be proud of... it's Clorox-clean!" You see how snowy-white Clorox makes white cottons and linens (brightens fast colors); you smell their clean freshness; you hear praise of their beauty! Moreover, there's an invisible virtue enjoyed by Clorox users... their laundry is sanitary. And Clorox conserves fabrics in two ways... an important economy in these days of high linen prices: First, Clorox bleaches and brightens extra-gently because it's ultra-refined... free from caustic and other harsh substances... it is made by an exclusive patented process. Second, Clorox reduces hard rubbing... it not only conserves linens, it saves time and work as well. Yes, your senses and your good judgment agree... Clorox is tops in laundering!

When it's Clorox-clean... it's hygienically clean!

Clorox provides an extra margin of health protection in routine kitchen and bathroom cleansing. It disinfects... also deodorizes and removes stains. Simply follow directions on the label.

CLOROX

Washington Winks At Non-Political Talk About Mead

Whatever Occurs, Public Need Not Worry How He Will Manage to 'Get By'

By JAMES C. HUNN
(AP Special Washington Service)
Washington, May 1. — Former Senator Jim Mead will tell with a perfectly straight face that those bees buzzing around his home aren't political.

Maybe so, but gossip Washington winks at such talk. Too many rumors, most of them political, circulate freely about the lean, graying Buffalo Democrat.

Even before Mead was defeated in last fall's New York gubernatorial election by Republican Thomas E. Dewey, conjecture began as to what the future held in store for him.

One report had it that he would succeed Robert E. Hannegan as postmaster general, another that he would accept a lucrative position in private industry. Still another said he would become commissioner of the All America Professional Football Conference.

Right now, talk is heard that he may be a candidate next year for the House seat held by Republican John C. Butler of Buffalo who represents New York's 41st Congressional District.

That's probably as baseless as the other rumors thus far have proved to be. Actually, there isn't one solid hint as to what Mead himself may have in mind for the future.

"No, Sir, Not a Thing," Try pulling the question to him directly. Here's the answer: "The future? Honestly, I haven't a thing planned. No, sir, not a thing."

Right now, Mead says, he is concerned only with clearing up voluminous files that have accumulated in more than 30 years of political life.

Mead, who will be 62 on December 27, is guaranteed a modest financial future. If he chooses he can do ever better.

As a participant in New York's pension fund for former state employees, he receives $4,535 annually for the rest of his life.

That, coupled with private investments, he has made such as his interest in the Buffalo International League baseball club—insures against the wolf from chewing too sharply at his door.

He has still another source of possible revenue—a federal pension for which he will be eligible when he reaches 62. This would be in addition to his state benefits. In Mead's case the federal pen-

Episcopal Bishops Ask Funds Be Used To Give Education

Geneva, N. Y., May 1. (AP) — Protestant Episcopal bishops of the second province ask that "public funds be used only for public education."

The bishops took the stand in a resolution, adopted yesterday at the close of a three-day conference, calling upon Episcopal clergy and laity to oppose use of public funds for sectarian educational purposes. It endorsed the stand previously taken by the National Council of the Episcopal Church.

The Rt. Rev. Alfred L. Buryard, suffragan bishop of New Jersey, was elected secretary of the province which includes six New York state dioceses, two in New Jersey and the dioceses of Puerto Rico, Haiti, the Dominican Republic and the Panama Canal Zone.

Based on his years of government service, would approximate $2,529. Therefore, if he decides to participate, his total annual pension income would be $10,074.

Senatorial pensions are a hush-hush affair. It's next to impossible to get any reliable information that a particular ex-senator is receiving one. The Senate disbursing office is under strict orders, for instance, as is the pension refunds division of the Civil Service Commission.

Map Is Distributed
Albany, May 1. (AP) — The State Department of Public Works yesterday issued the first of its new monthly highway condition maps to be distributed to 7,000 outlets for display during the summer tourist season. The maps indicate where highway construction is under way. They will be displayed in hotels, automobile clubs, travel agencies and other centers.

Now SHE SHOPS "CASH AND CARRY" Without Painful Backache

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatism, pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning some times shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 60 years. Doan's give kidney tubes that cut out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Lobel Case May Go To Jury Tonight

Cohen Also Will Hear His Status in Case

New York, May 1 (AP)—The trial of Julius Lobel, alias Jimmy Collins, and Irving (Izzy the Eel) Cohen, charged with grand larceny in the alleged $750,000 mulcting of the Mergenthaler Linotype Co., may go to a Kings county court jury by tonight.

Today was given over to summations by the prosecution and defense.

Cohen, 46, took the stand yesterday to deny any complicity in the scheme admitted by William Arthur Nickel, former bookkeeper for the Brooklyn firm, who had testified he submitted invoices from dummy companies to get the company to pay for supplies it never received. Nickel is awaiting sentence.

Cohen's attorney called a certified public accountant, Simon Schlusell, to testify that during 1944, 1945 and 1946, Cohen earned between $35,000 and $37,000. Questioned by District Attorney Miles F. McDonald, Cohen admitted he had listed an exemption in his income tax return for "a wife named Anna." He said he really was a bachelor, but listed the exemption "to keep the accountant from knowing the woman I was living with was not my wife."

The defense attorney asked that the income tax returns be withdrawn from evidence, but Judge Samuel S. Liebowitz told him: "You introduced it; let it stand."

Licence Plate Found

Deputy Arthur Smith of the Kingston sheriff's office, found a New York state 1947 license plate, 3X 38-33, while driving near Temple Pond, this side of Ashokan. The owner may claim same at the Ulster county court house, sheriff's office.

Democrats in Senate Are Cited as Playing Politics With Labor Legislation

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, May 1.—The Democrats in the Senate—that is, 33 out of 44 of them—have begun to play politics with labor legislation.

They are asking the country to believe that, on the issue of separating the pending bill into four parts or keeping it intact, 33 of the Democrats think alike—purely by accident and not design. It was natural for the Republicans to vote solidly to maintain the existing bill in one piece, because the House of Representatives has passed a single bill by an overwhelming majority and it would produce a confusing parliamentary situation to split the bill into segments now. It could conceivably delay the passage of any or all of the four proposed bills. But the Democratic maneuver is explicable only on political grounds.

If the strategy of dividing the bill had been decided on several weeks ago, it would have been good politics for the Republicans themselves but to separate the measure now is a palpable device to sabotage the legislation and carry favor with the union bosses.

The ostensible reason for the move in the Senate was to prevent a veto. But almost everyone on Capitol Hill knows that the only way to prevent a veto of any labor bill is to strip it of any features that are being opposed by the labor-union lobby. Mr. Truman showed by his veto of the Case bill last year and through the testimony which he permitted the secretary of labor to make this year that, no matter what either the House or the Senate favors, the White House will veto.

The argument for splitting the bill into four pieces was easily refuted. Thus the measure is divided into four sections now and it was proposed to make a separate bill of each one.

There is a section dealing with the appointment of a joint commission to study labor problems. Surely nobody will expect Mr. Truman to object to a bill that includes this project.

Another section creates an emergency mediation service. Since this does not bind either employer or union to accept findings there can hardly be any justification for a veto on this ground.

A third section deals with liability of both unions and management for violation of contracts. This is a controversial subject, but it can hardly be that President Truman would approve everything else in the measure and base his veto solely on this brief section of the bill.

Finally, there is the section

St. Bonaventure Railroad Rusts on Scrap Heap

Olean, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—The "St. Bonaventure Railroad" is rusting on the scrap heap today—all 300 yards of it—thus ending an era of free passes on other, bigger railroads for the Very Rev. Thomas Plassman, O.F.M., president of St. Bonaventure College.

Father Plassman, who used to exchange passes with other roads, watched workmen start ripping up the 22-year-old tracks yesterday and remarked, wistfully:

"There goes the key to a hard-to-get berth in the future."

The tracks were taken up to make room for erection of a new administration building. It had been used to haul supplies from the Pennsylvania's Allegheny river branch to the campus boiler room.

The "dinkey" engine broke down a few years ago after about 20 years of service and parts have been unobtainable.

"I'm president of the St. Bonaventure Railroad," Father Plassman used to write to his bigger brothers in the railroad business.

He said he used to coerce them into a free pass by threatening not to issue passes on "The St. Bonaventure."

"We may not be as long as other roads, but we certainly can match them in width," was the Franciscan father's favorite boast.

The college plans to move its supplies by truck in the future.

6,200 Caskets Are Loaded for War Zones

New York, May 1 (AP)—At a Staten Island pier, 6,200 encased bronzed-steel caskets are being loaded into the four hatches of the Liberty ship Joseph V. Connolly, which will be the first of eight transports to return America's war dead from foreign lands.

When all eight transports are converted for the postwar task, four will ply the Atlantic and four the Pacific. The army plans to receive 13,000 war dead from Europe and North Africa through the port of New York each month.

Questioning so far shows that about 80 per cent of the families of men killed overseas want the remains brought home, the army announced.

ference, it will be primarily because of this section rather than any of the other three.

To separate the pending Senate bill into four parts, so that Mr. Truman could approve three relatively innocuous sections and veto a fourth—giving him a score of three signatures to one veto—would make things very simple politically for the President and mislead the public, but it would not cure the abuses in the labor situation which Section 1 of the Senate bill is designed to remedy.

The labor-union lobby is working overtime to defeat any and all bills. Postcards and letters are pouring in from workers, many of whom are being forced to write such letters. In some instances, the workers are asked to bring their communications to the officers, who approve or disapprove and who mail those they think are worth sending on to Washington. Reports from western New York indicate that threats of blacklisting are being made unless workers write to Congress the letters desired by the union bosses.

The pending legislation is by no means perfect. Neither the House bill nor the Senate bill would be phrased as they are if labor unions had cooperated in the writing of these measures. Congressional committees begged the unions to cooperate but they refused.

If a veto comes, and it is sustained, the fight for even more restrictive legislation will go on. The refusal of the labor-union group to permit the Wagner Act to be amended to equalize bargaining power can mean a prolonged fight. Mr. Truman's veto can mean his defeat in 1948. But whether any bill can be enacted this year is doubtful because of the obstructive attitude of the Democrats. The extremists, of course, hope that the labor-union influence with Mr. Truman will cause him to veto the measure, for they believe a more drastic bill will get through the next session and that a veto will be overridden then.

The ideal situation, to be sure, would be to scrap all the bills and repeal the Wagner Act, too, so that management and unions could operate voluntarily without restrictions by any governmental board, but it is apparent that errant minorities among employers and among unions make legislation necessary. Now the public wants the law to treat both sides alike. (Reproduction rights reserved)

Washington, May 1 (AP)—The A.F.L. and C.I.O. shake hands today and begin talking about merger.

Labor bills in Congress hastened the meeting.

Both rival leaders—William Green of the A.F.L. and Philip Murray of the C.I.O.—asserted in advance of their 11 a. m. (E.S.T.) huddle that they have an "open mind" about how to solve the major obstacles to unity.

But little optimism could be found in either camp over the prospect of an early consolidation of the A.F.L.'s 7,500,000 and the C.I.O.'s 6,000,000 members.

Murray thinks the two groups should demonstrate their solidarity first in fighting off common foes, wherever they may be. After that, would come talk about physical consolidation.

The A.F.L. leadership wants the union's C.I.O. to come back under the federation's banner—as the first step. Then cooperation would come naturally, the A.F.L. contends.

How to get over that basic difference is the big issue immediately facing the committees representing the two big organized labor forces.

They were brought together today as a result of an exchange of correspondence started by Murray last December 5.

Murray was moved to issue his call for unity of action by two things: (1) the threat of restrictive laws looming both in Congress and numerous state legislatures, and (2) the jam John L. Lewis and his United Miners were in at the time.

The government had won an injunction against Lewis' union for shutting down the federally-operated coal mines, and Lewis and the U.M.W. had been fined $350,000 for contempt of court.

Later communications between Murray and Green stubbornly followed their divergent views about which should come first: Unity of action or "organic merger."

But Green and Murray each

Steel Companies, Workers Agree; Strikes Occur

New York, May 1 (AP)—Most of the nation's steel companies and their workers have agreed to renew contracts on a pattern increasing wages 15 cents an hour, but expiration of negotiation deadlines last midnight touched off two strikes in the industry.

At Indiana Harbor, Ind., a spokesman for the C.I.O. Steelworkers said a strike began at 12:01 a. m. (C.D.T.) at Inland Steel Company, seventh largest producer in the nation, because contract terms had not been agreed upon. Negotiations were continuing.

The Inland walkout was the first major one in the industry this year.

Picket lines also were organized at midnight at the Trenton and Roebing, N. J., plants of John A. Roebing's Sons Co., cable manufacturers, because of a breakdown in negotiations. The company said its final offer was equivalent to the approximately $6 a week increase accepted by other steelworkers.

The 15 cents an hour, or $6 a week, wage boost pattern which evolved from U.S. Steel's negotiations last week was the basis for contract agreements between the steelworkers and four companies that were announced yesterday. The companies were Bethlehem Steel Corp., Republic Steel Corp., Crucible Steel Co. of America, and the Colorado Fuel and Iron Corp.

named a committee of five to talk it over. These are the men they picked:

For the A.F.L.—Green, Lewis, William L. Hutcheson of the Carpenters, Daniel J. Tobin of the Teamsters, and George Meany, A.F.L. secretary-treasurer and former head of the New York State Federation of Labor.

For the C.I.O.—Murray, Walter P. Reuther of the Auto Workers, Emil Rieve of the Textile Workers, Sam Potofsky of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, and Albert J. Fitzgerald of the United Electrical Workers.

Financial and Commercial

New York, May 1 (AP)—Leading stocks continued to work the recovery side of the market street today with favorites advancing fractions to around 2 points.

There was an active buying flurry around midday, following a profit taking slowdown in the first hour. Subsequent slow intervals eventuated but the plus column was widely populated near the fourth hour.

Much of the revival again was credited to short covering and bidding by professionals on the idea that three successive declining months entitled the list to a substantial technical rebound. Earnings and dividends were helpful. Many commission house customers held aloof because of doubts regarding price-wage situations, the business outlook, taxes and foreign complications.

In the rising division most of the time were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, National Steel, Chrysler, General Motors, Santa Fe, N. Y. Central, Great Northern Railway, Illinois Central, Northern Pacific, Union Pacific, Woolworth, May Department Stores (on a sharp earnings jump), du Pont, Dow Chemical, American Tobacco "B", Liggett & Myers, United Merchants, Pepsi-Cola and International Paper.

Godfrey Resigns State Health Post

Governor Accepts With 'Sincere Regret'

Albany, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—Dr. Edward S. Godfrey resigned today as state health commissioner, a position he had held since 1936.

His resignation was accepted "with sincere regret" by Governor Dewey who told Godfrey that under his "leadership the New York State Department of Health has attained a standard unrivaled throughout the nation."

Godfrey, first appointed by Democratic Gov. Herbert H. Lehman, told Dewey he was resigning "in accordance with our recent understanding."

Dewey, in re-appointing Godfrey early this year, said the health commissioner had indicated a desire to resign but had agreed to stay on the job until the governor found a successor.

Wallace Reports Truman Doctrine Upsetting Europe

New York, May 1 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace, commenting in a radio speech on his recent European tour, said last night that "everywhere I had to defend America against growing bitterness."

The former vice president said the people of Europe look upon the Truman doctrine "with fear because they regard it as a step leading toward war."

He added that "conservative American newspapermen told me that America will use economic pressure to drive the Communists, the largest French political party, out of the government and will give full support to De Gaulle."

"If this is true," Wallace said, "then I say we are treading with policy that may lead to bloodshed."

Wallace, now editor of the New Republic Magazine, said Europeans looked to this country for capital and goods needed for rehabilitation but did not want help through the Truman doctrine.

"The program provides military equipment for European governments," he said. "What good is military equipment to them?"

Instead, Wallace said, Denmark wants tractors, Sweden and Norway want coal, and France and Britain want machinery.

He said the world was "sharply divided into two parts" and added: "I blame Russia, Britain, America and all nations for this division. But America today is helping to force this division instead of working for peace."

The address was the first of a series of talks Wallace will make during a cross-country tour.

Rent Curb Will Remain Under Housing Expediter

Rent control and eviction controls will continue in this region without substantial change after responsibility for administering the program is transferred to the Housing Expediter on May 4, O.P.A. Regional Administrator James L. Meader of New York said today. The New York region includes the states of New York, New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware.

"Washington," Mr. Meader said, "Housing Expediter Frank Creedon has made known his intent to administer the program effectively and within the spirit and letter of the law."

"The public having business with Area Rent Officers will find them in the same locations. The same regulations and procedures will remain in effect. An administrative program will go forward in all areas where rent controls are still in effect. Mr. Creedon has made it plain that such is his desire within whatever framework Congress provides."

Mr. Meader said that the Regional Rent Office, in cooperation with the Washington Office, will carry on its continuing study of the needs for controls in all areas, with a view toward lifting them exactly wherever an improved relationship between housing demand and supply develops.

"The twin purposes," he said, "are to keep strong programs in operation where needed and to remove controls promptly and completely wherever and whenever good reason exists for bringing them to an end."

Hotel and Restaurant Supplies at Reben's
Reben's "The Friendly Store" at 45 North Front street has opened a new hotel and restaurant supply department in addition to the line of hardware and house furnishings which have been carried since Robert Reben opened the store two years ago.

Mr. Reben will carry a full line of hotel and restaurant supplies in the new department and in the event the articles desired cannot be found in stock he offers a 24 hour service to customers. In expanding his line of merchandise Mr. Reben said he had taken into consideration the fact that there was no hotel and restaurant supply house in the upper portion of the city and felt that there was need for such a line to supply the local city hotels as well as the numerous mountain houses and boarding houses. The new department will be stocked with a line of heavy cooking utensils, glassware, pots and pans and kitchen supplies. Kitchen and hotel supplies are not a new line to Mr. Reben, his brother, the late Max Reben, having been engaged in that business for a number of years, and the hotel and restaurant supply business has been a family occupation for some time. Max L. Reben for some time was general manager of the L. Barth & Company plant in this city, manufacturers of kitchen and hotel equipment. Elephants do not drink through their trunks.

Ulster Health Department, Nurses Selected in State-wide Drive

Local Apprentice Nurses Singled Out by State

Photographs Used in New York City in Campaign to Enlist More Nurses

Ulster county, one of the first counties in the state of New York to inaugurate the Apprentice Public Health Nurse program with registered nurses serving as trainees, has been observing the 70th anniversary of Public Health Nursing during the past week which was known as "Public Health Nursing Week."

During the week public health nurses throughout the land have been honored and their valuable work has been brought to the attention of the public. Ulster county's 15 public health nurses, who serve the city of Kingston and rural areas of the county under the jurisdiction of the County of Ulster Department of Health together with the five apprentice nurses who are serving as trainees prior to entering a college of their choice in September under a scholarship, have been singled out by the State of New York Health Department as a part of a state-wide campaign to acquaint the people of the state with the work which is being done in Public Health.

The local nurses and the Ulster County Department of Health have been selected for taking a series of "on the job" photographs which will be used in a state-wide campaign to acquaint people of the work which is being done in public health nursing and also to recruit additional nurses for public health work.

A series of photographs has been taken locally by State Department of Health photographers showing the range of public health nurse work.

Ulster county's five apprentice nurses have been singled out as typical girls who seek to make public nursing their career. Already these photographs have been used in New York city in a recruitment campaign to enlist additional nurses in public health work.

A typical photograph shows Miss Gertrude McGowan, Miss Audrey Gillen, Miss Lillian Samuels and Miss Kathleen Schleele, four of the county's five apprentice nurses, leaving the County Health Department office in Kingston for a round of duty.

Miss Marion Casey of Marlborough was not in the picture since she was detained on duty at that time. These five nurses who are serving as trainees will in September enter a college of their choice to continue for one year their study under a scholarship.

Some have selected the University of Pennsylvania and others will attend New York University.

All county public health nurses work under the supervision of Miss Adele Didricksen, R.N., B.S., director of Public Health Nursing and Eleanor Schultes, supervision nurse.

The entire county of Ulster has now available the public nurse service. Working out of the Kingston office and serving the city of Kingston, are Mrs. Mary O'Neil, Miss Marjorie Fitzgerald, Miss Kathleen Schleele, Miss Gertrude McGowan and Miss Ruth Becker.

From the New Paltz Health Center at New Paltz is Miss Wilma Petroff who is assigned to the towns of New Paltz, Plattekill, Gardiner, Shawangunk, and Rosendale. Working from the Milton School center is Miss Minna Strohman who is assigned to the town of Marlborough, Miss Marion Casey is assigned to Lloyd and working out of the Town Clerk's office at Ellenville are Mrs. Elizabeth Korzenorfer and Harriet Breslow who cover the towns of Wawarsing and Denning.

Pictorial Review of Nurses on Duty

Mrs. Hulda Coddington, who is assigned to the Accord Health Center, covers the towns of Marlborough, Rochester and a part of Olive.

Ann Cassidy has the townships of Hurley, Woodstock, Kingston, Shandaken, Hardenburgh and a part of Olive and works out from the Woodstock Health Center in Woodstock.

Elizabeth Schoonmaker and Estelle Modjeska have the town of Saugerties and work out from the Saugerties Health Center in the Saugerties town building in Saugerties and Miss Schoonmaker also covers the town of Ulster on certain days.

The staff of local nurses is also augmented by Mrs. Ruth Wilkinson, state orthopedic nurse, who in addition to service in other counties, gives orthopedic nursing service to Ulster county.

The service of the Public Health nurse is well known to many people of the county and city who have had occasion to require this service but many people are not familiar with the wide scope of the work. These nurses assist at county clinics, work in the chest clinics at the Tuberculosis Hospital, attend and aid at the itinerant chest clinics which are held at various points including Ellenville, New Paltz, Saugerties and Wallkill, they also aid at the twelve Child Health consultations which are held monthly in Kingston city, Saugerties, Wallkill, Accord, Modena, Highland, Marlborough, Woodstock, Port Ewen, East Kingston and twice yearly at Olive Bridge. In addition to these stated meetings they assist the sick in the home and give bedside care and health instruction, visit tuberculosis patients and their contacts, attend and aid at venereal disease clinics and participate in cancer clinics and give general nursing care in homes where a local physician may need emergency aid. All of these services are given under the direction of the private physician or under his supervision. Recently one of the added duties has been the assistance given at smallpox vaccination clinics and they also aid at the regular child clinics where diphtheria toxin is administered.

At present there are five vacancies in the Public Nurse field which can be filled by any qualified public health nurse and efforts are now being made to fill these vacancies on the county staff in order that the county health program in the county may be expanded and made available to everyone who may need the services of a public health nurse.

The entire public health program of the county and city of Kingston was taken over on January 1, last, by the County Department of Health which was organized under a recent law which permitted the placing of both rural and city health work under one county head. Included in the authority of the County Health Department is the public nurse work, sanitation work and all matters pertaining to the health of the public.

These duties are administered by Dr. George James, M.D., M.P.H., Commissioner of Health and the Ulster County Board of Health which consists of the Rev. Frank B. Seeley, president; Francis E. O'Connor, M.D., vice-president; the Very Rev. Martin J. Drury, all of Kingston; Eugene F. Galvin, M.D., of Rosendale; Harry Kaplan and Robert F. Moseley, M.D., both of Kingston; Fabian L. Russell of Saugerties and Harry Snyder of Stone Ridge. The tuberculosis hospital is under the supervision of Dr. George W. Weber, M.D., superintendent.

At present there are five vacancies in the Public Nurse field which can be filled by any qualified public health nurse and efforts are now being made to fill these vacancies on the county staff in order that the county health program in the county may be expanded and made available to everyone who may need the services of a public health nurse.

Milk Returns Will Be Lower Than '46

Oneonta, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—Milk price returns to producers in the New York milkshed for May and June will be about 50 cents a hundredweight lower than in the same months a year ago while production costs will be "much higher," says State Commissioner of Agriculture C. Chester Du Mond.

Speaking on a farm forum sponsored by the Oneonta Daily Star last night, Du Mond said he hoped, however, that milk consumption would continue at a high level and that returns to producers would "improve substantially" before the end of the year.

Spring Fever
"Spring fever," one of the most common of human afflictions, has its way with many of us just after winter departs with a final chilly huff. We learn, we droop, we sag, we seek a pleasant spot to sit and sun ourselves. We complain of being all tired out and, in many cases, we really are.

In springtime, after the arduous days of winter, and possibly after a siege with colds or other diseases. What most of us are suffering from is fatigue, often due merely to overwork or overplay. To combat it we need extra rest, sunshine and the right food to supply necessary energy.
One way to combat fatigue is to get the right amount of food

at the right time. This means eating a balanced diet. Extra rest and careful attention to diet in the springtime will put us in the best condition to enjoy the outdoor days of summer. All of us benefit by an occasional change of scene, and now is the time to plan ahead for a pleasant, recreational vacation. Sedentary workers will profit if they get a short "capsule vacation" each day, by getting some sort of outdoor exercise.

It is the desire for a change which makes some of us fall victims to "spring fever." We are bored with the same old foods, clothes and scenes. In the old days the usual prescription for this condition was some evicting tonic, such as sulphur and molasses. Today some of us have discovered that the purchase of a brand new hat or a colorful tie is a very effective antidote for lassitude.

If real fatigue exists, under the guise of "spring fever," it must be combated, for when we are tired we are more apt to contract infections. Accuracy of vision and coordination are also affected by fatigue, so that we are more apt to be involved in accidents than when we are rested. Since undue, persistent fatigue may be the first sign of a serious illness, fatigue that does not disappear under proper rest and diet should mean a visit to the doctor for a medical check-up.

In the next article, the formation of good health habits will be discussed.
This column is sponsored, in the interest of better health, by the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association, 74 John street, Kingston, N. Y.

Fishers Back From Dead
Just as Veracruz, Mexico, was going into mourning over the loss of many of its fishing colony, a group of them turned up, to the delight of their families, after having been caught in a storm which lasted several days. They had been given up for dead but had been able to put in to Emmedio Island, where a lighthouse keeper provided them with food and shelter until the storm subsided.

LET'S EAT!

'Baby Dishes' Double on Menu

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

May 1 is Child Health Day, an anniversary which has been officially sponsored by the U. S. Children's Bureau since 1923.
Let's remember that "the foundation for health is laid in the first six years." The healthy child has the best chance of growing into the healthy adult. The child who lives a regular life and has good health habits—who eats well-planned meals at regular hours, gets plenty of sleep at regular hours, plays vigorously out of doors in the sunshine—has the best chance of laying a good foundation for future health.

Also that "it is wise to go to a doctor to keep children well, rather than to go to him only to cure illnesses that might have been prevented."

Then let's turn to baby's lunch. Many a "baby dish" can double as a luncheon dish for mother on busy work days, or as supper or any other meal of the day when bland dishes must be served to invalids or to elderly members of the family whose food must be highly nutritious but easy to digest. Modern prepared baby foods can often be used on the regular menu. Strained or chopped vegetables frequently are served with only a quick seasoning of butter or fortified margarine. They can be used in casseroles, soups, sauces for variety and interest.

Baby Cereal Cookies
(Makes 2 1/2 Doz.)
One-half cup fortified margarine, 1/4 cup sugar, brown or granulated, 1/4 cup light margarine, 1 egg or 2 egg yolks, 1 1/3 cups baby cereal,

2/3 cup sifted flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/8 teaspoon baking soda, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 cup evaporated milk.
Cream margarine and sugar, add

Prepare luncheon foods that both child and mother can eat.

molasses and egg or egg yolks. Mix dry ingredients together and add alternately with evaporated milk to the creamed mixture. Beat thoroughly. Drop from teaspoon on greased cookie sheet. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 10 minutes.
Variations: Add 1/2 cup raisins to half of batter; to remaining half, add 1/4 cup chopped nuts.

Apricot Fruit Whip
(Makes 4 Mite-Sized Servings)
One egg white, few grains salt, 2 teaspoons sugar, 2 containers apricots with farina, or strained fruit combinations.
Beat egg white with salt until very stiff, adding sugar during beating. Fold in strained fruit stirring just enough to blend. Spoon lightly into dishes. Note: This is best when prepared close to serving time, as fruit and egg white will separate if allowed to stand.

Variations: 1. Add a few drops of vanilla or fresh lemon juice. 2. Serve with a topping of custard pudding. 3. Fold only 1 container of fruit into beaten egg white; place 2 or 3 spoonfuls of the plain strained fruit in each dish and serve whip over it. Try apricots with farina folded into beaten egg white over strained prunes, peaches or pears.

TOMORROW'S MENU
BREAKFAST: Orange juice, ready-to-eat cereal, enriched

toast, butter or fortified margarine, jelly, coffee, milk.
MOTHER AND BABY LUNCHEON: Casserole of chopped vegetables with poached egg, whole wheat bread, butter or fortified margarine, apricot fruit whip, baby cereal cookies, tea, milk.
DINNER: Casserole of creamed whitefish with grated cheese top, parsleyed new potatoes, new peas, raw carrot sticks, rolls, butter or fortified margarine, strawberries and cream, coffee, milk.

Doe Hit by Car
Cameron Van Derveer, salesman for the Colgate-Palmolive Peet Co., hit a doe deer near the Port Ewen Cemetery while driving to

Heart Trouble Is Hard on Men Who Are in Professions

Doctors Are Told How Coronary Diseases Hit This Group; Says Tobacco Bad

Chicago, May 1 (AP)—One out of every two men listening to him would die of coronary heart trouble, Dr. Louis N. Katz, of Chicago, told an audience of more than 1,000 doctors of the American College of Physicians here today.

That would happen, he said, unless something now unknown is found to prevent such deaths.

"And," he went on, "not only is this true of the medical profession, but it is true of other professions and of the executives, the people upon whose intelligence the welfare of this country depends to a large extent."

"We don't know why men suffer more than women and why 'braintrusters' in the broadest sense withstand this disease less than the average male population."

"Apparently one of the prices paid by an individual becoming a professional or executive type is that his chance of succumbing to coronary disease is greatly enhanced."

Dr. Katz is director of cardiovascular research at the Michael Reese Hospital. Coronary disease includes not only coronary thrombosis, where a clot interferes with blood reaching heart muscles, and coronary occlusion, where the same arteries get too narrow, but most of the serious heart troubles.

Dr. Katz advised against tobacco. But he said a cocktail or two helps relax the arteries supplying the heart. Also wine with meals should be encouraged.

"Live slow, play slow," he told the physicians, "avoid peak loads, be carefree. Keep your weight down to normal."

"Take graded exercise, like walking and golf—but not to the point of shortness of breath."

"And never try competition—not even with your own golf par." Dr. Boris E. Rubenstein, also of Michael Reese Hospital, said that contrary to popular belief, there are not 12 months in a year in which most women could become pregnant.

There are, he said, only seven or eight months on the average. And for some women much fewer. The reason is that women fail usually to produce ova, or eggs, every month. Some women, he added, are affected by weather, so that they have no chances of motherhood in either very hot or very cold weather.

Helpful Description
Chicago, May 1 (AP)—Sgt. Edward O'Malley of central police asked fellow officers yesterday to help him find his car.

With embarrassment, he said they probably would be sure to notice it if it appears on the streets because it still bears 1946 license plates and a 1946 city vehicle sticker.

He said he had not obtained 1947 licenses because he expected to buy a new car soon.

One of the most remarkable victories in years in the Vanderbilt Cup Tournament was this year, won by Harry J. Fishbein, Harry Feinberg, Joseph E. Low, and Larry Hirsch, all of New York, and David Claron of St. Paul, Minn. This was not one of the seeded teams and consequently they were scheduled to play the favorites in the semi-finals.

They defeated the favorites in this round. In fact they did not lose a match, even in the qualifying rounds, right up to the final. In the finals they were behind at the end of the first quarter, picked up a little but were still minus at the half, then lost some more points in the third quarter. They went into the final quarter 1020 points behind, with only four-teen boards to play, and they won the tournament by 1510 points.

Fishbein, who is a great card analyst, gave me today's hand, and I think you will like the play in it. Dummy played low on the opening heart lead, and most West players probably would win the trick with the king and return the seven of hearts, which lets declarer make the contract.

Fishbein's team defeated the hand when West played the seven of hearts on the first trick. Declarer won with the queen, led the queen of spades and took the finesse.
West won and led back the king of hearts. He had to get in again with either the ace of clubs or a diamond, and when he did, he led back the deuce of hearts. This gave East and West a spade, a club, and three heart tricks.

South Africa proposes to supply a "National" meal to school children.

Success of Sale Is Impetus to Slash Prices for Good

Pottstown, Pa., May 1 (AP)—Enthusiasm by the biggest one-day sale in the memory of Pottstown merchants, this eastern Pennsylvania town of 20,000 began laying the groundwork today for a permanent price-slashing plan.

The executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce set a meeting for tomorrow night to discuss yesterday's profit-sharing project and to "adopt a Pottstown plan."

Virtually all stores cooperated in the one-day test with prices tumbling from 10 to 50 per cent. Even drug stores joined in, reducing the cost of ice cream sodas from 25 to 15 cents.

Many merchants reported the "best business" since the war's end as a serious springtime buying slump went out in a 12-hour sale in which stores were jammed throughout day and night.

A Chamber of Commerce spokesman described the sale as "an out-and-out attempt to clean out our merchandise so we can plan for a permanent reduction in the next few months."

The spokesman made it clear that the Pottstown project differs from the Newburyport plan which met with great success in the Massachusetts city.

The Pottstown plan differs, he said, because here the proposal does not recommend only a 10 per cent across the board cut for a limited period.

"We are not convinced," said the chamber, "that a 10 per cent reduction is enough."

The native explained that he loved his wife very much but discovered she was unfaithful to him while he was on night duty. He was warned to desist.

SATURDAY BANK CLOSING

To the Public:

Pursuant to the new law which permits Banks in the State of New York to close on Saturdays, our Main Banking House and Central Branch will close at 3 P. M. on Friday afternoon of each week during the months of May to September inclusive, 1947, and remain closed until the following Monday morning.

We believe that this test period of Saturday closing and the reaction to it of our patrons will demonstrate whether or not this policy should be made permanent. If we find that our customers are unduly inconvenienced thereby, we will abandon such policy. In event no such inconvenience results, Saturday closing will probably be made permanent by us.

During this test period we request our patrons to inform us how Saturday closing affects them and to frankly express to us their opinions as to whether such policy should be abandoned or continued by us.

Dewey's Aid Asked In Robeson Case

Civil Rights Committee Is Formed in Albany to Oppose Board

Albany, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—The newly-organized Albany Committee for Civil Rights wants Governor Dewey to oppose the city Board of Education's ban on use of a school auditorium for a reception by Paul Robeson, Negro baritone, May 9.

A resolution adopted by 200 representatives of church, civic and labor union groups, who formed the organization last night, urged Dewey to speak out against what they termed "this fundamental violation of constitutional liberties in the capital of the state of New York."

Other resolutions called upon Mayor Erastus Corning and the Board of Education to rescind the ban and invited Robeson to sing on the steps of the State Capitol if the auditorium's use is denied him.

Corning, defeated Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor last fall, has said he was "entirely in accord" with the board's action and that he brought Robeson's scheduled concert to the board's attention.

The board must show cause in State Supreme Court at Kingston tomorrow why it should not be enjoined permanently from interfering with the concert in Philip Livingston Junior High School.

The court order was obtained by the Carver Cultural Society of a Negro Methodist church group sponsoring Robeson's appearance.

The board rescinded permission for the use of the auditorium last week after the House Committee on Un-American Activities had linked Robeson to organization al-

Arthur J. Harvey, attorney for the Carver Society, characterized the banning of the school auditorium to Robeson as an attack on the Negro race.

"The trend of Fascist tendencies has been apparent in Albany for many years," Harvey said. "This is a question of racial discrimination and we doubt the city officials would treat a white organization this way. It is time this business about Robeson is stopped and stopped here."

People wouldn't think of reading by candlelight in this modern age of electricity...

and Millions of Women wouldn't think of Laundering without Clorox...

WHEN you've used Clorox your senses say—and rightly so—"now, there's a wash to be proud of... it's Clorox-clean!" You see how snowy-white Clorox makes white cottons and linens (brightens fast colors); you smell their clean freshness; you hear praise of their beauty! Moreover, there's an invisible virtue enjoyed by Clorox users... their laundry is sanitary. And Clorox conserves fabrics in two ways... an important economy in these days of high linen prices: First, Clorox bleaches and brightens extra-gently because it's ultra-refined... free from caustic and other harsh substances... it is made by an exclusive patented process. Second, Clorox reduces hard rubbing... it not only conserves linens, it saves time and work as well. Yes, your senses and your good judgment agree... Clorox is tops in laundering!

When it's Clorox-clean... it's hygienically clean!

Clorox provides an extra margin of health protection in routine kitchen and bathroom cleaning. It disinfects... also deodorizes and removes stains. Simply follow directions on the label.

Democrats in Senate Are Cited as Playing Politics With Labor Legislation

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, May 1 (AP)—The Democrats in the Senate—that is, 33 out of 44 of them—have begun to play politics with labor legislation.

They are asking the country to believe that, on the issue of separating the pending bill into four parts or keeping it intact, 33 of the Democrats think alike—purely by accident and not design.

It was natural for the Republicans to vote solidly to maintain the existing bill in one piece, because the House of Representatives has passed a single bill by an overwhelming majority and it would produce a confusing parliamentary situation to split the bill into segments now. It could conceivably delay the passage of any or all of the four proposed bills. But the Democratic maneuver is explicable only on political grounds.

If the strategy of dividing the bill had been decided on several weeks ago, it would have been good politics for the Republicans themselves but to separate the measure now is a palpable device to sabotage the legislation and curry favor with the union bosses who want all legislation delayed.

The ostensible reason for the move in the Senate was to prevent a veto. But almost everyone on Capitol Hill knows that the only way to prevent a veto of any labor bill is to strip it of any features that are being opposed by the labor-union lobby. Mr. Truman showed his veto of the Cuse bill last year and through the testimony which he permitted the secretary of labor to make this year that, no matter what either the House or the Senate favors, the White House will veto.

The argument for splitting the bill into four pieces was easily refuted. Thus the measure is divided into four sections now and it was proposed to make a separate bill of each one.

There is a section dealing with the appointment of a joint commission to study labor problems. Surely nobody will expect Mr. Truman to object to a bill that includes this program.

Another section creates an emergency mediation service. Since this does not bind either employer or union to accept findings there can hardly be any justification for a veto on this ground.

A third section deals with liability of both unions and management for violation of contracts. This is a controversial subject, but it can hardly be that President Truman would approve everything else in the measure and base his veto solely on this brief section of the bill.

Finally, there is the section on the St. Bonaventure Railroad Rusts on Scrap Heap.

Olean, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—The "St. Bonaventure Railroad" is rusting on the scrap heap today—all 300 yards of it—thus ending an era of free passes on other, bigger railroads for the Very Rev. Thomas Plassman, O.F.M., president of St. Bonaventure College.

Father Plassman, who used to exchange passes with other roads, watched workmen start digging up the 22-year-old tracks yesterday and remarked wistfully:

"There goes the key to a hard-to-get berth in the future."

The tracks were taken up to make room for erection of a new administration building. It had been used to haul supplies from the Pennsylvania's Allegheny river branch to the campus boiler room.

The "dinky" engine broke down a few years ago after about 20 years of service and parts have been unobtainable.

"I'm president of the St. Bonaventure Railroad," Father Plassman used to write to his bigger brothers in the railroad business.

He said he used to coerce them into a free pass by threatening not to issue passes on "The St. Bonaventure."

"We may not be as long as other roads, but we certainly can match them in width," was the Franciscan father's favorite boast. The college plans to move its supplies by truck in the future.

6,200 Caskets Are Loaded for War Zones

New York, May 1 (AP)—At a Staten Island pier, 6,200 encased bronze-steel caskets are being loaded into the four hatches of the Liberty ship Joseph V. Connolly, which will be the first of eight transports to return America's war dead from foreign lands.

When all eight transports are converted for the postwar task, four will ply the Atlantic and four the Pacific. The army plans to receive 13,000 war dead from Europe and North Africa through the port of New York each month.

Questioning so far shows that about 80 per cent of the families of men killed overseas want the remains brought home, the army announced.

ference, it will be primarily because of this section rather than any of the other three.

To separate the pending Senate bill into four parts, so that Mr. Truman could approve three relatively innocuous sections and veto a fourth—giving him a score of three signatures to one veto—would make things very simple politically for the President and mislead the public, but it would not cure the abuses in the labor situation which Section 1 of the Senate bill is designed to remedy.

The labor-union lobby is working overtime to defeat any and all bills. Postcards and letters are pouring in from workers, many of whom are being forced to write such letters. In some instances, the workers are asked to bring their communications to the offices, who approve or disapprove and who mail those they think are worth sending on to Washington. Reports from western New York indicate that threats of blacklisting are being made upon less workers write to Congress the letters desired by the union bosses.

The pending legislation is by no means perfect. Neither the House bill nor the Senate bill would be phrased as they are if labor unions had cooperated in the writing of these measures. Congressional committees begged the unions to cooperate but they refused.

If a veto comes, and it is suspected, the fight for even more restrictive legislation will go on. The refusal of the labor-union group to permit the Wagner Act to be amended to equalize bargaining power can mean a prolonged fight. Mr. Truman's veto can mean his defeat in 1948. But whether any bill can be enacted is doubtful because of the obstructive attitude of the Democrats. The extremists, of course, hope that the labor-union influence with Mr. Truman will cause him to veto the measure. For they believe a more drastic bill will get through the next session and that a veto will be overridden.

The ideal situation, to be sure, would be to scrap all the bills and repeal the Wagner Act, too, so that management and unions could operate voluntarily without restrictions by any government board, but it is apparent that erasing any bill can be enacted is doubtful because of the obstructive attitude of the Democrats. The extremists, of course, hope that the labor-union

Mrs. W. Dean Hays Entertains at Musical And Tea; Four Artists Heard in Program

Mrs. W. Dean Hays of 110 Fair street entertained at a musicale and tea Wednesday afternoon in the Governor Clinton. The artists were wisely selected and presented a program thoroughly enjoyed by the audience. There were 170 guests.

Two of the artists were from Albany. Mrs. Viola Hailes, a leading soprano of Albany, is at present soloist in the First Dutch Church of that city and is heard over the service broadcast of WABY every Sunday. She has been soloist in Troy and filled many engagements in oratorio, opera, radio, light opera and concert work in New York, North and South Carolina as well as the capital area.

She chose for her selections yesterday: When Love Is Kind, an English folk song; A Prayer for You by Tors; There's a Lark in My Heart, Spross; The Three Cavaliers, an interesting Russian lullaby song by Schindler; The Wind's in the South, Scott; and as an encore, Dream by Bartlett. Her voice lent much charm to the songs.

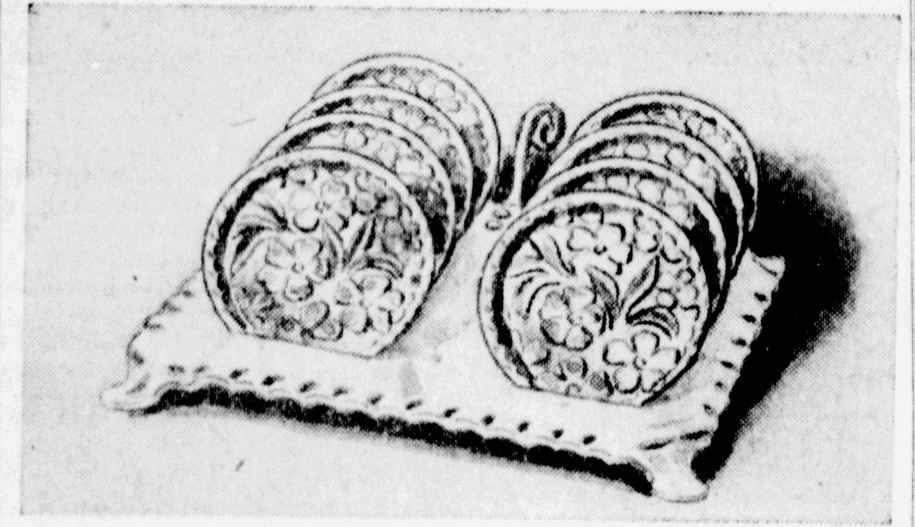

Accompanying Mrs. Hailes and also playing two groups of solos was Stuart Swart. He has studied with the late Dr. Frank Sill Rogers of Albany and also at the Fontainebleau, France. He was organist and choir director of the First Reformed Church of Albany from 1919 to 1928 and then served in a similar capacity at Westminster Presbyterian Church until 1938. He has served as accompanist and also conductor of the Mendelssohn Club of Albany. As a result he had played for many noted soloists and through these contacts Mr. Swart toured the country during the period of 1938 to 1941 as accompanist under the direction of the Civic Concerts Bureau of the National Broadcasting Company. During the War Mr. Swart was engaged in production at the Schenectady plant of the General Electric Co. This season marks the return of Mr. Swart to his professional career which opened with an engagement in Town Hall as accompanist for Miss Sylvia Wasser, violinist.

Mr. Swart's solos were varied including Three Country Dances by Beethoven arranged by Seiss; Ballade in A Flat by Chopin and as an encore a novelty, The Little Music Box by Liebhich.

The other three artists needed no introduction to the Kingston audience. It was a pleasure to hear them once again.

Herbert Bird, violinist, accompanied by his wife, Ruth Holmes Bird played Caprice Viennois and Liebestreud by Kreisler; Gypsy Airs by Sarasate and as an encore Londonerry Air arranged by Kreisler.

Miss Helen Sheldon, harpist, chose Harp Prelude in C Minor; Chopin; Harp Mazurka, Schuecker; Will O' The Wisp, Hasselmanns.

The Rev. Edward V. Winder, pastor of the First Baptist Church, gave the invocation. The committee in charge of last night's affair included Herbert Jones, Chester Greene, Sherwood Lasher and George Matthews, dinner; Byron Chatham, Erwin Craw and Dean Bohnke, program.

Regional Artists Exhibit in Albany

Others are three boldly executed oils by Mark Vukovic of Saugerties, two finely drawn works in tempera by Stanley Bates of Crayville and "Summer Stream" by William Waltemath of East Chatham.

Outstanding in the sculpture division is the carved ebony statue "Jamaican Mother and Child," by Harry Fite of Saugerties.

Mrs. Terwilliger Talks of Senate House to Hospital Auxiliary

At the regular meeting of the Hospital Auxiliary held in the Nurses' Home, Tuesday, the speaker, Mrs. Mary Black Terwilliger gave an interesting description of a trip through the historic Kingston Senate House and Museum, which, though frequented by visitors to the city, is not so well known to residents.

At present the Senate House is being restored in the period style of 1676, the year the original structure was built. Donations of furniture of that era are welcome. One such gift recently received was a kas, sent by the Hardenburgh family of Rosendale.

During the business meeting, Mrs. M. B. Downer, the president, announced that the nominating committee would include Mrs. R. Frederic Chidsey, Mrs. A. W. Mollott and Mrs. Reynolds Carr.

A telegram was read from Fabian Russell, president of the Hospital board, saying he hoped to attend the Auxiliary's May meeting.

To make plans for the annual dinner for the Graduating Class of Nurses, the following committee was appointed: Mrs. W. H. Hiltor and Mrs. Amos R. Newcombe, co-chairmen; Mrs. N. Le Van Haver, Mrs. Griffiths and Mrs. Kenneth Le Fever, assistants.

Business Girls Will Conduct Snack Bar For Youth Dances

At the regular meeting of the Business and Professional Girls' Club in the Y.W.C.A. Wednesday night, the group decided to conduct a snack bar Friday nights for the patrons of the young people's dances. Suggestions were also made for the fall conference and $5 was contributed to the Cancer Control fund.

The next meeting will be a birthday dinner and initiation. The Mother and Daughter banquet will be held the following week, May 14.

Miss Alberta Davis assisted by Miss Miriam Halloran had charge of the program, "A Day at a Summer Conference." The scene was suggested by the conference last year at Wells College for office workers. At the conclusion the club decided to continue to send delegates to the conference.

The evening closed with committee meetings and games of bridge.

WRITING PAPER FOR CLUB USE

It is always hard to answer questions about color without samples to look at. The following letter comes from the secretary of a club: "The colors of our club are green and gold. Would it be proper for us to have green writing paper with a yellow letterhead or should the paper be white (or possibly cream) and the colors pronounced only in the design of the letterhead?"

Green and yellow lettering on either pale cream or white paper would be in best taste.

'You' Certainly Stands for Husband

Dear Mrs. Post: When someone who is married, sends a note just to me and does not include my husband, but writes that she would like me to come to tea Sunday to meet some guests of theirs, may I assume that this also means my husband? Evidently her husband will be present—indicated by "theirs"—and it is a day when my husband as well as most men are home.

Answer: Under the circumstances you describe, the "you" in her letter certainly means you both and may be taken as such.

Multiple Signatures

Dear Mrs. Post: How should the card have been written with a wedding anniversary gift sent, by two single and two married children in a family, to someone who had been a great friend of their mother's? Someone suggested "The Henderson Family," but this would not make it clear that the married ones were meant, too, and also the husband and wife of these two.

Answer: I think the card should have been written, "From Alice, Mary, Hilda and John, Sally and Albert. A 'great friend' of their mother's would have known they were all Hendersons."

Kingston Chapter Joins Newburgh In Sorority Day

Members of the Newburgh Beta Iota Chapter and New York Gamma Chi, Chapter 2392 of Kingston, held a joint celebration in honor of the 16th anniversary of the worldwide sorority at the Palatine Hotel in Newburgh Tuesday evening. Members of both chapters attended the annual Founder's Day dinner.

Adelaide Tompkins, president of the Newburgh chapter, presided throughout the banquet. Tables were candlelight and decorated in black and gold, the sorority colors.

Following the dinner, Phyllis Cummings sang "From East to Western Skies," a song which won second prize in a recent Beta Sigma Phi song contest. Later on the program Jean Cummings sang "Oh, Shepherd of the Stars."

Other highlights of the program included a review of past activities sponsored by the Newburgh chapter which was given by Mrs. Neal Early. Mrs. Pattee Wallace, well-known figure in the Newburgh musical field, was guest speaker. She entertained the group with an interesting talk on personalities in the world of music.

After the presentation of various prizes to Exemplar members, the ritual of jewels took place for the installation of new pledges to the Newburgh sorority.

Personal Notes

A. Bruce Bennett of New Paltz who spoke to the drama group of the Y.W.C.A. Women's Club this afternoon is the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Connelly, 142 Pearl street.

Two local students now attending the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music are scheduled in recitals this month. Miss Evelyn Torres, daughter of Lt.-Col. and Mrs. Henry Torres of Lake Hill will sing in a recital today. She is a pupil of Robert Powell. Miss Minna Mandel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Mandel of 65 West Chestnut street who is a student of Laura Mae Wright will sing May 8.

To gain practical experience in education, Miss Jane S. Holcomb, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frederic Holcomb, 188 Fair street, is teaching English at Central Square, and Clayton R. Brower, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brower, 110 South Main avenue, is teaching social studies at Auburn Central High for a three-week period.

Musical Society Holds Bookalogue Meeting

A bookalogue meeting was held by Kingston Musical Society Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. John Snyder, 135 Wall street when "The Opera" by Brockway and Weinstock was reviewed by Mrs. LeRoy Vogt and Mrs. Bernard Forst.

Mrs. Forst gave her impressions of the book as to the creation of the opera, the first introduced in 1600. According to the book Bardi wrote the first opera, "Daphne" in 1600, the second was "Euridice" by Peri with Caccini making additions to it. Monteverdi started changes in the opera and in 1609 "Orpheus" was first heard. She said that glamor of opera depends on several things from the music, singers, impresarios and even the listeners. She also named some of the operas of the 18th century by Gluck, Rossini, Beethoven and Donizetti.

Mrs. Vogt spoke of the more recent operas of the last century and modern day. She discussed Gounod's Faust which he wrote at the age of 33, his Romeo and Juliet, works by Borodin, Moussorgsky and of Decms Taylor, Cadman, and George Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess," which she said might be introduced at the Metropolitan. She also spoke of the oratorio, "Temple of Minerva," written by Francis Hopkinson in commemoration of the alliance with France. She concluded that America is far behind other countries in opera works and one of the reasons may be the language.

The next meeting of the club at the home of Mrs. Henry Dunbar, president, in Hurley, will be held Wednesday, May 21 instead of May 14. Each member will be given a guest privilege.

Labor Bills Bring On Talk Between CIO, AFL Unions

Washington, May 1 (AP)—The A.F.L. and C.I.O. shake hands today and begin talking about merger.

Labor bills in Congress hastened the meeting.

Both rival leaders—William Green of the A.F.L. and Philip Murray of the C.I.O.—asserted in advance of their 11 a. m. (E.S.T.) meeting that they have an "open mind" about how to solve the major obstacles to unity.

But little optimism could be found in either camp over the prospect of an early consolidation of the A.F.L.'s 7,500,000 and the C.I.O.'s 6,000,000 members.

Murray thinks the two groups should demonstrate their solidarity first in fighting off common foes, wherever they may be. After that, would come talk about physical consolidation.

The A.F.L. leadership wants the unions in the C.I.O. to come back under the federation's banner—possibly with a brand new name—as the first step. Then cooperation would come naturally, the A.F.L. contends.

How to get over that basic difference is the big issue immediately facing the committees representing the two big organized labor forces.

They were brought together today as a result of an exchange of correspondence started by Murray last December 5.

Murray was moved to issue his call for unity of action by two things: (1) the threat of restrictive laws looming both in Congress and numerous state legislatures. And (2) the plan John L. Lewis and his United Miners were in at the time.

The government had won an injunction against Lewis' union for shutting down the federally-operated coal mines, and Lewis and the C.I.O. had been fined $3,510,000 for contempt of court.

Later contemplation of the Murray and Green stubbornly followed their divergent views about which should come first: Unity of action or "organic merger."

But Green and Murray each

Steel Companies, Workers Agree; Strikes Occur

New York, May 1 (AP)—Most of the nation's steel companies and their workers have agreed to new contracts on a pattern increasing wages 15 cents an hour, but expiration of negotiation deadlines last midnight touched off two strikes in the industry.

At Indiana Harbor, Ind., a spokesman for the C.I.O. Steelworkers said a strike began at 12:01 a. m. (C.D.T.) at Inland Steel Company, seventh largest producer in the nation, because contract terms had not been agreed upon. Negotiations were continuing.

The Inland walkout was the first major one in the industry this year.

Picket lines also were organized at midnight at the Trenton and Rocking, N. J., plants of John A. Roebling's Sons Co., cable manufacturers, because of a breakdown in negotiations. The company said its final offer was equivalent to the approximately $6 a week increase accepted by other steelworkers.

The 15 cents an hour, or $6 a week, wage boost pattern which evolved from U. S. Steel's negotiations last week was the basis for contract agreements between the steelworkers and four companies that were announced yesterday. The companies were Bethlehem Steel Corp., Republic Steel Corp., Crucible Steel Co. of America, and the Colorado Fuel and Iron Corp.

named a committee of five to talk it over. These are the men they picked:

For the A.F.L.—Green, Lewis, William L. Hutcheson of the Carpenters, Daniel J. Tobin of the Teamsters, and George McNay, A.F.L. secretary-treasurer and former head of the New York State Federation of Labor.

For the C.I.O.—Murray, Walter P. Reuther of the Auto Workers, Emil Rieve of the Textile Workers, Jacob Potofsky of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, and Albert J. Fitzgerald of the United Electrical Workers.

Financial and Commercial

New York, May 1 (AP)—Leading stocks continued to work the recovery side of the market street today with favorites advancing fractions to around 2 points.

There was an active buying flurry around midday, following a profit taking lull in the first hour. Subsequent slow intervals eventuated but the plus column was widely populated near the fourth hour.

Much of the revival again was credited to short covering and bidding by professionals on the idea that three successive declining months entitled the list to a substantial technical rebound. Earnings and dividends were helpful. Many commission house customers held aloof because of doubts regarding price-wage situations, the business outlook, taxes and foreign complications.

In the rising division most of the time were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, National Steel, Chrysler, General Motors, Santa Fe, N. Y. Central, Great Northern Railway, Illinois Central, Northern Pacific, Goodyear, Woolworth, May Department Stores (on a sharp earnings jump), Du Pont, Dow Chemical, American Tobacco, Liggett & Myers, United Merchants, Pepsi-Cola and International Paper.

Godfrey Resigns State Health Post

Governor Accepts With 'Sincere Regret'

Albany, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—Dr. Edward S. Godfrey resigned today as state health commissioner, a position he had held since 1936.

His resignation was accepted "with sincere regret" by Governor Dewey who told Godfrey that under his "leadership the New York State Department of Health has attained a standard unrivaled throughout the nation."

Godfrey, first appointed by Democratic Gov. Herbert H. Lehman, told Dewey he was resigning "in accordance with our recent understanding."

Dewey, in re-appointing Godfrey early this year, said the health commissioner had indicated a desire to resign but had agreed to stay on the job until the governor found a successor.

Wallace Reports Truman Doctrine Upsetting Europe

New York, May 1 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace, commenting in a radio speech on his recent European tour, said last night that "everywhere I had to defend America against growing bitterness."

The former vice president said the people of Europe look upon the Truman doctrine "with fear because they regard it as a step leading toward war."

He added that "conservative American newspapermen told me that America will use economic pressure to drive the Communists, the largest French political party, out of the government and will give full support to De Gaulle."

"If this is true," Wallace said, "then I say we are treading with a poleax that may lead to bloodshed."

Wallace, now editor of the New Republic Magazine, said Europeans looked to this country for capital and goods needed for rehabilitation but did not want help through the Truman doctrine.

"The program provides military equipment for European governments," he said. "What good is military equipment to them?"

Instead, Wallace added, Denmark wants tractors, Sweden and Norway want coal, and France and Britain want machinery.

"He said the world was 'sharply divided into two parts' and added: 'I blame Russia, Britain, America and all nations for this division. But America today is helping to force this division instead of working for peace.'"

The address was the first of a series of talks Wallace will make during a cross-country tour.

Barone-Olmo Bout Tops B'nai B'rith Card Here Tonight

Brightwell Is Due For 2nd Match; First Fight 9 P.M.

Indications are that tonight's boxing card in the municipal auditorium will draw a large attendance, according to Dr. Murray Greene, who has been handling reserved seat arrangements for the show featuring Tony Barone and Lou Olmo.

This bout was arranged after Olmo scored a knockout, over Eddie Morton, Albany welterweight star in Poughkeepsie recently. Olmo won the 147-pound Golden Gloves championship of Long Island, representing Valley Stream in the tournament.

Barone, the Schenectady boy who is one of the best drawing cards the Kingston club has, went to the finals in the national A.A.U. tournament at Boston, losing to Cleveland's Jackie Keough with whom he split in two bouts at the auditorium during the winter.

Other five-round bouts on tonight's bill, which give promise of action galore are: Jimmy Brightwell, now of Newburgh, former Oklahoma Golden Gloves champion vs. Charlie Jones, middleweight Golden Gloves champion of Long Island.

Brightwell is the boxer who fought a sensational bout with Al Hurlbut of Rome several weeks ago, establishing himself as a favorite with many fans who are expected to see him in his second appearance tonight.

Joe Ausanio, Kingston middleweight knockout puncher vs. Hubert Allison, Valley Stream slugger.

Frankie Alvarez, Schenectady featherweight, who went to the finals in the nationals at Boston vs. Charlie Green of Valley Stream.

The first of three preliminaries supporting the other ring attractions will go on at 9 o'clock.

Failure of Top '46 Hurlers Main Puzzle of New Season

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

One of the enigmas of the young baseball campaign has been the poor pitching form displayed by Hal Newhouser and Howie Pollet, the premier southpaws of the major leagues.

Newhouser, Detroit's star hurler, who is generally rated as the best left-hander in the American League since Bob Grove, has lost his last three starts after opening the season for the Tigers with an auspicious shutout against the St. Louis Browns.

Pollet, the stylish St. Louis Cardinals twirler, who led all National League pitchers in games won and earned runs last year, in each of his three starts this season, has been belted out of the box and charged with the defeat.

Yesterday was the third straight time that Newhouser failed to go the route as the Boston Red Sox finished him off in the ninth inning to whip the Tigers 7-1. Mel Parnell, rookie southpaw ended the Red Sox four-game losing streak by holding the Bengals to four hits in registering his initial major league victory.

Breadon Is Alarmed
The skidding Cards took their seventh successive defeat, a 4-3 loss to the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds. The situation is so serious in St. Louis that President Sam Breadon announced he was flying to New York to see for himself just what is wrong with the world champions.

The Cards led until two out in the ninth yesterday, mainly because of home runs by Al (Red) Schoendienst and Stan Musial. The eighth-place Redbirds are now six full games behind the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Chicago Cubs, behind the four-hit pitching of rookie Doyle Lade, snapped the Dodgers' six-game winning streak 3-1. The defeat was Brooklyn's first in nine starts at Ebbets Field and narrowed its first place lead over the Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirate to one game. The Dodgers' Jackie Robinson went hitless four times at bat, stretching his hitless streak to 20.

The Pirates had three big innings, a four run fifth and three run eighth and ninth innings to swamp the Phils in Philadelphia 11-4.

The Braves, behind Johnny Sain, topped the Cincinnati Reds in Boston 10-3. Sain fanned 10 batters and was helped by Bob Elliott, who got three hits and Earl Torgerson, who powered a homer and triple.

The New York Yankees' western invasion started in reverse as the Browns licked them 15-5 in St. Louis.

Pale Hose on Top
The Chicago White Sox climbed into first place in the American League past the Yankees by defeating the Washington Senators 5-2 at Comiskey Park. Bob Kennedy helped Johnny Rigney rack up his second win by punching out two doubles and driving in three runs.

The Philadelphia Athletics and Indians in Cleveland were rained out.

Brooklyn Won't Snicker at Lade After Four-Hitter

Brooklyn, May 1 (AP) — With First Baseman Ed Waitkus back in the lineup, the Chicago Cubs were hustling through infield practice. Nobody paid much attention when the Ebbets Field loudspeakers crackled, "Lade, pitching for Chicago."

"Who's that bum?" was a common observation. The Flatbush customers were flushed by eight home park victories without a miss. Dodger fans weren't in the mood to be bothered by some kid they had never heard of before.

As Lade warmed to the task of earning his first big league victory and winning in the ninth on Bill Nicholson's long home run, the Dogenites realized they were seeing a real pitcher.

The husky 26-year-old right-hander from Fairbury, Neb., wound up with a four-hitter, deflecting two smashes through the box into infield outs and catching a sizzling liner off Jackie Robinson's bat that was tagged "base hit."

Next time they announce "Lade, pitching for Chicago," the Brooklyn customers will listen.

One of the enigmas of the young baseball campaign has been the poor pitching form displayed by Hal Newhouser and Howie Pollet, the premier southpaws of the major leagues.

Newhouser, Detroit's star hurler, who is generally rated as the best left-hander in the American League since Bob Grove, has lost his last three starts after opening the season for the Tigers with an auspicious shutout against the St. Louis Browns.

Pollet, the stylish St. Louis Cardinals twirler, who led all National League pitchers in games won and earned runs last year, in each of his three starts this season, has been belted out of the box and charged with the defeat.

Yesterday was the third straight time that Newhouser failed to go the route as the Boston Red Sox finished him off in the ninth inning to whip the Tigers 7-1. Mel Parnell, rookie southpaw ended the Red Sox four-game losing streak by holding the Bengals to four hits in registering his initial major league victory.

Breadon Is Alarmed
The skidding Cards took their seventh successive defeat, a 4-3 loss to the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds. The situation is so serious in St. Louis that President Sam Breadon announced he was flying to New York to see for himself just what is wrong with the world champions.

The Cards led until two out in the ninth yesterday, mainly because of home runs by Al (Red) Schoendienst and Stan Musial. The eighth-place Redbirds are now six full games behind the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Chicago Cubs, behind the four-hit pitching of rookie Doyle Lade, snapped the Dodgers' six-game winning streak 3-1. The defeat was Brooklyn's first in nine starts at Ebbets Field and narrowed its first place lead over the Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirate to one game. The Dodgers' Jackie Robinson went hitless four times at bat, stretching his hitless streak to 20.

The Pirates had three big innings, a four run fifth and three run eighth and ninth innings to swamp the Phils in Philadelphia 11-4.

The Braves, behind Johnny Sain, topped the Cincinnati Reds in Boston 10-3. Sain fanned 10 batters and was helped by Bob Elliott, who got three hits and Earl Torgerson, who powered a homer and triple.

The New York Yankees' western invasion started in reverse as the Browns licked them 15-5 in St. Louis.

Pale Hose on Top
The Chicago White Sox climbed into first place in the American League past the Yankees by defeating the Washington Senators 5-2 at Comiskey Park. Bob Kennedy helped Johnny Rigney rack up his second win by punching out two doubles and driving in three runs.

The Philadelphia Athletics and Indians in Cleveland were rained out.

MUSIAL BEATS THE BALL FOR A CHANGE

The Cardinals' Stan Musial, most valuable National League player last year, came out of his 1947 slump with an in-the-park home run against the Giants at the Polo Grounds. Here he slides home just ahead of the ball (arrow). He led the league's hitters last year, but until he connected with this one was batting only .153 for the season. It didn't help the Cards, though; they lost, 4-3. (NEA Telephoto)

Only One Ambition

Philadelphia, May 1 (AP) — The kid whose fielding has kept the Philadelphia Phillies from falling out of the league has only one baseball ambition — "to hit a home run." Twenty-eight-year-old Emil Verban, by consensus of National League managers and players the best fielding second baseman in the National League, is a frustrated hitter. "Nothing burns me up more," says Verban, "than when outfielders move in when I come to bat."

Prospect Is Found

Baltimore, May 1 (AP) — With Coach Cecil Isbell of the Baltimore Colts beating the bushes for talent, President Bob Rodenberg has unearthed a prospect here for the club in the All-America Football Conference. Rodenberg yesterday signed Bill Irwin, a six-foot end. Irwin ended his schooling upon graduation from Riverside Military Academy in New York. During the war he played outstanding ball with the navy team in Hawaii.

Ten clubs signified intentions of entering this season's play during last night's parley. A special committee was named to discuss rules and a schedule prior to the next meeting which will be held at the "Y" next Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

Lapine Smashes 584 in Colonial

Charlotte Lapine, smashing a smooth string of 199-182-203, featured the high triple honors in the Colonial Women's League matches Wednesday night at the Central Recreation alleys with her 584 blast. Mrs. Lapine sparked Reinas to a pair of wins over the Mayor-ettes.

Elizabeth Bruck of Phelan & Cahills divided the spotlight by walking in with high single honors with her 215 opener. Her other marks were 140 and 147 for a 502 three-timer.

Other notable efforts turned in last night included Margie Jansen's 200-571, Rita Markle 203-566, Bertha Schaller 201-562, Doris Wolf 210-535, Marie O'Donnell 193-528, Dot Murphy 201-522, Rose Schatzel 201-521, Dot Rawding 181-520, Bev Markle 204-515 and Mildred Mackey 202-480.

No Hit Game

Carthage, Mo., May 1 (AP)—Jim Morris, a slender 21-year-old pitcher, hurled a no-hit, no-run game in a Kansas-Oklahoma-Missouri League season opener last night to give Miami, Okla., a 12-0 victory over Carthage. He walked five, hit one batsman and struck out 10. Morris, a former marine, entered professional baseball last year with Topeka of the Western Association.

Miami, Fla.—Lulu Costantino, 134½, New York, outpointed Lino Garcia, 130½, Havana, 10.

Dempsey and Gibbons

Franks to Oppose Subway Musers In Double-Header

Frank's Sport Shop softball team will engage the Subway Grill musers in a double-header Sunday afternoon at the upper Forsyth Park diamond. The opener is slated for 2 o'clock.

Al Hunt and Ed Lowe have been primed to do the flinging for the Sportsmen while the Grillers are expected to counter with Walt Bigler and Ben Toffel.

Although lineups are subject to change by game time, the Sportsmen are due to open with Maxson, Lindhurst, Hughes and Geisler rounding out the infield while Tomaseski, Roe, Goumas or Norton hold down the picket line. Myers is expected to do the receiving.

The Subway club will have Culver Ten Brock, Owen Ten Brock, "Daisy" Schatzel and E. Schatzel on the defense. Hoffman, Fautz and Thomas will be in the outfield with Larkin behind the plate.

Two Games Out of First

Detroit, May 1 (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics were a mere two games out of first place in the American League today. But conversely, the A's were languishing in last place. That's how close the junior circuit race was after two weeks of the 1947 season.

Health Survey Recommends Five Regional Hospitals

Final Report Suggests They Be Established for Chronic Diseases, Not TB, Mentals

Albany, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—Establishment of five regional hospitals costing $9,000,000 to lead the way in a statewide drive to combat chronic diseases has been recommended to Governor Dewey by the State Health Preparedness Commission.

The commission, which expired yesterday after functioning since 1938, recommended in its final report that the 150-bed hospitals be located at Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Albany and, for the New York suburban region, in New York.

A similar number of state-supported beds would be made available in New York for the city's chronic disease sufferers.

Cost of the program was estimated at $4,380,000 annually, half for operation of the hospitals and half for New York.

The state would finance construction of the hospitals and pay all maintenance and operating expenses not met by fees assessed patients.

The hospitals, besides treating chronic diseases exclusive of tuberculosis and mental illnesses, also would be research, teaching and consultation centers.

The commission declared that chronic diseases account for seven out of 10 New York deaths, that present facilities are "inadequate," and that state leadership was needed.

The report also recommended: Expansion of facilities for care of the chronically ill in general hospitals.

Expansion of home nursing. Designation of a state agency to develop advanced methods of preventing and treating such diseases.

Special studies of the program's relationship to chronic alcoholism and mild mental disturbances to determine need for facilities to care for both groups.

Republican Assemblyman Lee B. Mailler of Orange county, assembly majority leader, headed the committee.

New York (Jamaica Arena) — Maurice "Lefty" LaChance, 133½, Lisbon Falls, Me., outpointed Julie Bort, 139½, Brooklyn, 8.

Binghamton, N. Y. — George Williams, 158½, Baltimore, outpointed Juan Serrano, 163½, Havana, 10.

The Y.M.C.A. provides recreation facilities for the youth of the city. Share in this program by supporting the financial drive.

Hotel and Restaurant Supplies at Reben's

Reben's, "The Friendly Store," at 45 North Front street has opened a new hotel and restaurant supply department in addition to the line of hardware and house furnishings which have been carried since Robert Reben opened the store two years ago.

Mr. Reben will carry a full line of hotel and restaurant supplies in the new department and in the event the articles desired cannot be found in stock he offers a 24-hour service to customers. In expanding his line of merchandise Mr. Reben said he had taken into consideration the fact that there was no hotel and restaurant supply house in the upper portion of the city and felt that there was need for such a line to supply the local city hotels as well as the numerous mountain houses and boarding houses.

The new department will be stocked with a line of heavy cooking utensils, glassware, pots and pans and kitchen supplies.

Kitchen and hotel supplies are not a new line to Mr. Reben, his brother, the late Max Reben, having been engaged in that business for a number of years, and the hotel and restaurant supply business has been a family occupation for some time. Max L. Reben for some time was general manager of the L. Barth & Company plant in this city, manufacturers of kitchen and hotel equipment. Elephants do not drink through their trunks.

Leo Is Laraine's Ideal, She Says At Court Hearing

Los Angeles, May 1 (AP)—Whatever Leo Durocher's current status in the rough and ready world of baseball, to tender-eyed Laraine Day, the film actress, he represents a lifetime ideal.

She testified yesterday near the conclusion of a court ordered inquiry into her American and Mexican divorces from J. Ray Hendricks, and subsequent marriage to the suspended Brooklyn Dodgers' manager.

"I guess I've been in love with Mr. Durocher all my life," she said in reply to a question by Maurice Rose, one of three attorneys appointed by the court to prosecute charges of fraud and collusion in obtaining her California divorce.

"He just happened to fit into my ideal," she continued. "I've had an ideal all my life about the kind of man I'd like to marry. . . . I just gradually realized he fit into my ideal. He was the man I wanted to live with, and I knew he would give my adopted children a wonderful home."

She testified that Hendricks' alleged drunkenness had often embarrassed her and that once when she had reproached him, he said "All right, I'll leave."

"I said, 'I think I'm in love with Mr. Durocher,'" (a family friend), she testified. She said Hendricks then called Durocher and asked him "Leo, are you in love with my wife?" Durocher then came to the house, she testified and told Hendricks he loved Miss Day "more than anything in the world."

"It's my fault, not yours, Leo," she quoted Hendricks as saying. Rose pressed the actress to fix a time when she fell in love with Durocher, and finally her attorney, Isaac Pach, interrupted with "when a woman falls in love with a man it is not a matter of mathematical calculation." Judge Ingall W. Dull upheld his objection.

The hearing is on Superior Judge George A. Dockweiler's demand that the interlocutory divorce decree be awarded Miss Day last January be set aside on the grounds of fraud and collusion.

Both sides rested shortly after Miss Day's testimony, and final arguments get under way this morning.

Actress Awaits Birth

Santa Ana, Calif., May 1 (AP)—Actress Bette Davis awaited childbirth in a flower-bedecked two-room suite at Santa Ana Community Hospital today. Her physician, Dr. Vincent Carroll, expected to deliver the baby by Caesarean section sometime today. The 39-year-old actress completed shopping for the event shortly before entering the hospital last night. She and her husband, William Grant Sherry, to whom she was married in 1945, have a nursery waiting in their recently purchased home at nearby Laguna Beach, Calif. Among the flowers was a gardenia arrangement from Miss Davis' mother with a card saying: "Will be in the front row as always."

Ulster Health Department, Nurses Selected in State-wide Drive

Local Apprentice Nurses Singled Out by State

Photographs Used in New York City in Campaign to Enlist More Nurses

Ulster county, one of the first counties in the state of New York to inaugurate the Apprentice Public Health Nurse program with registered nurses serving as trainees, has been observing the 70th anniversary of Public Health Nursing during the past week which was known as "Public Health Nursing Week."

During the week public health nurses throughout the land have been honored and their valuable work has been brought to the attention of the public. Ulster county's 15 public health nurses, who serve the city of Kingston and rural areas of the county under the jurisdiction of the County of Ulster Department of Health together with the five apprentice nurses who are serving as trainees prior to entering a college of their choice in September under a scholarship, have been singled out by the State of New York Health Department as a part of a state-wide campaign to acquaint the people of the state with the work which is being done in Public Health.

The local nurses and the Ulster County Department of Health have been selected for taking a series of "on the job" photographs which will be used in a state-wide campaign to acquaint people of the work which is being done in public health nursing and also to recruit additional nurses for public health work.

A series of photographs has been taken locally by State Department of Health photographers showing the range of public health nurse work.

Ulster county's five apprentice nurses have been singled out as typical girls who seek to make public nursing their career. Already these photographs have been used in New York City in a recruitment campaign to enlist additional nurses in public health work.

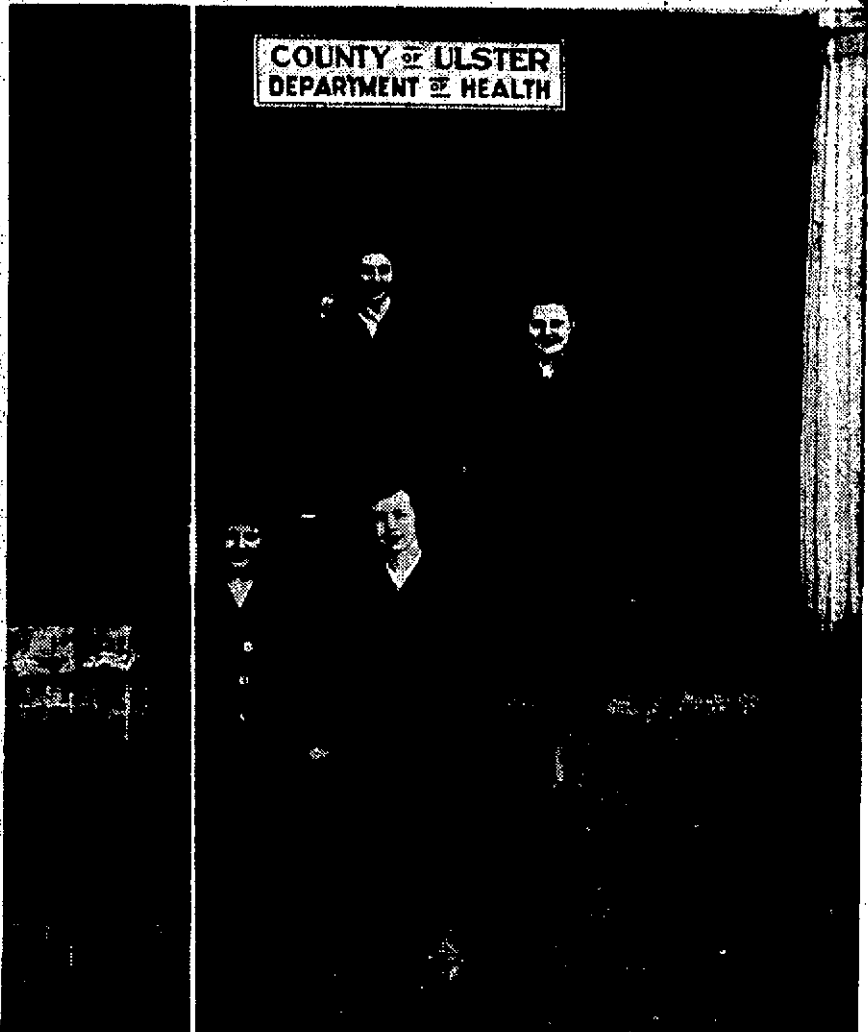

A typical photograph shows Miss Gertrude McGowan, Miss Audrey Gillen, Miss Lillian Samuels and Miss Kathleen Schleede, four of the county's five apprentice nurses, leaving the County Health Department office in Kingston for a round of duty. Miss Marion Casey of Marlborough was not in the picture since she was detained on duty at that time. These five nurses who are serving as trainees will in September enter a college of their choice to continue for one year the study under a scholarship. Some have selected the University of Pennsylvania and others will attend New York University.

All county public health nurses work under the supervision of Miss Adele Didrickson, R.N., B.S., director of Public Health Nursing and Eleanor Shults, supervision nurse.

The entire county of Ulster has now available the public nurse service. Working out of the Kingston office and serving the city of Kingston, are Mrs. Mary O'Neil, Miss Marjorie Fitzgerald, Miss Kathleen Schleede, Miss Gertrude McGowan and Miss Ruth Reeder.

From the New Paltz Health Center at New Paltz, Miss Wilma Petroff who is assigned to the towns of New Paltz, Plattekill, Gardiner, Shawangunk, and Rosendale. Working from the Millen School center is Miss Minna Strahman who is assigned to the town of Marlborough. Miss Marion Casey is assigned to Lloyd and working out of the Town Clerk's office at Ellenville are Mrs. Elizabeth Korzenforter and Harriet Breslow who cover the towns of Wawarsing and Denning.

Pictorial Review of Nurses on Duty

Mrs. Hulda Coddington, who is assigned to the Accord Health Center, covers the towns of Marlborough, Rochester and a part of Olive.

Ann Cassidy has the townships of Hurley, Woodstock, Kingston, Shandaken, Hardenburgh and a part of Olive and works out from the Woodstock Health Center in Woodstock.

Elizabeth Schoonmaker and Estelle Modjeska have the town of Saugerties and work out from the Saugerties Health Center in the Saugerties town building in Saugerties and Miss Schoonmaker also covers the town of Ulster on certain days.

The staff of local nurses is also augmented by Mrs. Ruth Wilkerson, state orthopedic nurse, who in addition to service in other counties, gives orthopedic nursing service to Ulster county.

Wide Scope of Work

The service of the Public Health nurse is well known to many people of the county and city who have had occasion to require this service but many people are not familiar with the wide scope of the work. These nurses assist at county clinics, work in the chest clinics at the Tuberculosis Hospital, attend and aid at the itinerant chest clinics which are held at various points including Ellenville, New Paltz, Saugerties and Wallkill, they also aid at the twelve Child Health consultations which are held monthly in Kingston city, Saugerties, Wallkill, Accord, Modena, Highland, Marlborough, Woodstock, Fort Ewen, East Kingston and twice yearly at Olive Bridge. In addition to these stated meetings they assist the sick in the home and give bedside care and health instruction, visit tuberculosis patients and their contacts, attend and aid at venereal disease clinics and participate in cancer clinics and give general nursing care in homes where a local physician may need emergency aid. All of these services are given under the direction of the private physician or under his supervision. Recently one of the added duties has been the assistance given at smallpox vaccination clinics and they also aid at the regular child clinics where diphtheria toxin is administered.

At present there are five vacancies in the Public Nurse field which can be filled by any qualified public health nurse and efforts are now being made to fill these vacancies on the county staff in order that the county health program in the county may be expanded and made available to everyone who may need the services of a public health nurse.

The entire public health program of the county and city of Kingston was taken over on January 1, last, by the County Department of Health which was organized under a recent law which permitted the placing of both rural and city health work under one county head. Included in the authority of the County Health Department is the public nurse work, sanitation work and all matters pertaining to the health of the public.

These duties are administered by Dr. George James, M.D., M.P.H., Commissioner of Health and the Ulster County Board of Health which consists of the Rev. Frank B. Seeley, president; Francis E. O'Connor, M.D., vice-president; the Very Rev. Martin J. Drury, all of Kingston; Eugene F. Galvin, M.D., of Rosendale; Harry Kaplan and Robert F. Moseley, M.D., both of Kingston; Fabian L. Russell of Saugerties and Harry Snyder of Stone Ridge. The tuberculosis hospital is under the supervision of Dr. George W. Weber, M.D., superintendent.

however, that milk consumption would continue at a high level and that returns to producers would "improve substantially" before the end of the year.

He added that there was little probability of any decline in farm labor costs, but that it "is to be hoped that feed costs will be lower next fall."

Du Mond traced the decline in producer returns for Class 1 fluid milk alone from a peak of $5.46 a hundredweight (47 quarts) last November to $4.14 beginning today.

A retail price cut of one cent a quart becomes effective today in New York city.

Milk Returns Will Be Lower Than '46

Oneonta, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—

Milk price returns to producers in the New York milkshed for May and June will be about 50 cents a hundredweight lower than in the same months a year ago while production costs will be "much higher," says State Commissioner of Agriculture C. Chester Du Mond.

Speaking on a farm forum sponsored by the Oneonta Daily Star last night, Du Mond said he hoped, however, that milk consumption would continue at a high level and that returns to producers would "improve substantially" before the end of the year.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

Awkward Location
Seaside, Ore., May 1 (AP)—Councilmen are puzzled by the legal problem they will have if construction of an $80,000 public auditorium is approved in a special May 20 election.
City Attorney Thomas Chave, Jr., says an eminent site description on the ballot puts the building in the center of Edgewood street.

Moving Day
Shevlin, Ore., May 1 (AP)—This little logging town—the pool hall, postoffice, gift shop, power plant and all—is getting ready to move again.
Twenty-six years ago a lumber company (Shevlin-Hixon) moved from Shevlin, Minn., and its town came along to the forests of Oregon. The town spent 22 years at three locations and four at this northern Klamath county site.
Some thirty miles southeast of here where there's a fresh stand of timber, streets and water mains are being laid out and early in June Shevlin and its 600 inhabitants—houses and all—will be at home again, after a rail trip by flatcar.

Pioneer Spirit 1947
Salt Lake City, May 1 (AP)—The Sons of Utah Pioneers whose ancestors crossed the plains in ox-cart and on foot in 1847, will reenact the trek in a series of dramatizations this summer at five points between Nauvoo, Ill., and Salt Lake City.

But in the event of rain the performances will be given indoors, Chairman D. James Cannon has announced.

Not the Athletic Type
Chicago, May 1 (AP)—Mabel Reynolds, 22, said a man approached her and "got fresh" just as she was about to enter a bakery. She screamed. Four husky bakers seized rolling pins and ran to her aid.
But the "masher" fled and the bakers were unable to catch him. "Too much pastry," they explained, gasping for breath after the chase.

Health for All

Spring Fever
"Spring fever," one of the most common of human afflictions, has its way with many of us just after winter departs with a final chilly huff. We lean, we droop, we sag, we seek a pleasant spot to sit and sun ourselves. We complain of being all tired out and, in many cases, we really are.

In springtime, after the arduous days of winter, and possibly after a siege with colds or other disease. What most of us are suffering from is fatigue, often due merely to overwork or overplay. To combat it we need extra rest, sunshine and the right food to supply necessary energy.
One way to combat fatigue is to get the right amount of food

at the right time. This means eating a balanced diet. Extra rest and careful attention to diet in the springtime will put us in the best condition to enjoy the outdoor days of summer. All of us benefit by an occasional change of scene, and now is the time to plan ahead for a pleasant, recreational vacation. Sedentary workers will profit if they get a short "capsule vacation" each day, by getting some sort of outdoor exercise.

It is the desire for a change which makes some of us fall victims to "spring fever." We are bored with the same old foods, clothes and scenes. In the old days the usual prescription for this condition was some evil-tasting tonic, such as sulphur and molasses. Today some of us have discovered that the purchase of a brand new hat or a colorful tie is a very effective antidote for lassitude.

If real fatigue exists, under the guise of "spring fever," it must be combated, for when we are tired we are more apt to contract infections. Accuracy of vision and coordination are also affected by fatigue, so that we are more apt to be involved in accidents than we are when we are rested. Since undue, persistent fatigue may be the first sign of a serious illness, fatigue that does not disappear under proper rest and diet should mean a visit to the doctor for a medical check-up.

In the next article, the formation of good health habits will be discussed.

This column is sponsored, in the interest of better health, by: the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association, 74 John street, Kingston, N. Y.

Fishers Back From Dead
Just as Veracruz, Mexico, was going into mourning over the loss of many of its fishing colony, a group of them turned up, to the delight of their families, after having been caught in a storm which lasted several days. They had been given up for dead but had been able to put in to Enmedio Island, where a lighthouse keeper provided them with food and shelter until the storm subsided.

LET'S EAT!

'Baby Dishes' Double on Menu

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

May 1 is Child Health Day, an anniversary which has been officially sponsored by the U. S. Children's Bureau since 1923.

Let's remember that "the foundation for health is laid in the first six years. The healthy child has the best chance of growing into the healthy adult. The child who lives a regular life and has good health habits—who eats well-planned meals at regular hours, gets plenty of sleep at regular hours, plays vigorously out of doors in the sunshine—has the best chance of laying a good foundation for future health."

Also that "it is wise to go to a doctor to keep children well, rather than to go to him only to cure illnesses that might have been prevented."

Then let's turn to baby's lunch. Many a "baby dish" can double as a lunch for mother on busy work days, or as supper, or any other meal of the day when bland diets must be served to invalids or to elderly members of the family whose food must be highly nutritious but easy to digest. Modern prepared baby foods can often be used on the regular menu. Strained or chopped vegetables frequently are served with only a quick seasoning of butter or fortified margarine. They can be used in custards, soups, sauces for variety and interest.

Baby Cereal Cookies
(Makes 2 1/2 Doz.)

One-half cup fortified margarine, 1/4 cup sugar, brown or granulated, 1/4 cup light molasses, 1 egg or 2 egg yolks, 1 1/3 cups baby cereal, molasses and egg or egg yolks. Mix dry ingredients together and add alternately with evaporated milk to the creamed mixture. Beat thoroughly. Drop from teaspoon on greased cookie sheet. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 10 minutes.

Prepare luncheon foods that both child and mother can eat.

Variations: Add 1/2 cup raisins to half of batter; to remaining half,

add 1/4 cup chopped nuts.
Apricot Fruit Whip
(Makes 4 Mite-Sized Servings)
One egg white, few grains salt, 2 teaspoons sugar, 2 containers apricots with farina, or strained fruit combinations.
Beat egg white with salt until very stiff, adding sugar during beating. Fold in strained fruit, stirring just enough to blend. Spoon lightly into dishes. Note: This is best when prepared close to serving time, as fruit and egg white will separate if allowed to stand.

Variations: 1. Add a few drops of vanilla or fresh lemon juice. 2. Serve with a topping of custard pudding. 3. Fold only 1 container of fruit into beaten egg white; place 2 or 3 spoonfuls of the plain strained fruit in each dish and serve whip over it. Try apricots with farina folded into beaten egg white over strained prunes, peaches or pears.
TOMORROW'S MENU
BREAKFAST: Orange juice, ready-to-eat cereal, enriched

toast, butter or fortified margarine, jelly, coffee, milk.
MOTHER AND BABY LUNCHEON: Casserole of chopped vegetables with poached egg, whole wheat bread, butter or fortified margarine, apricot fruit whip, baby cereal cookies, tea, milk.
DINNER: Casserole of creamed whitelish with grated cheese top, parsleyed new potatoes, new peas, raw carrot sticks, rolls, butter or fortified margarine, strawberries and cream, coffee, milk.

Doe Hit by Car

Cameron Van Derveer, salesman for the Colgate-Palmolive Peet Co., hit a doe deer near the Port Ewen Cemetery while driving to Newburgh this morning. The doe's legs were broken. Heart Trouble Is Hard on Men Who Are in Professions

Doctors Are Told How Coronary Diseases Hit This Group; Says Tobacco Bad

Chicago, May 1 (AP)—One out of every two men listening to him would die of coronary heart trouble, Dr. Louis N. Katz, of Chicago, told an audience of more than 1,000 doctors of the American College of Physicians here today.

That would happen, he said, unless something new unknown is found to prevent such deaths. "And," he went on, "not only is this true of the medical profession, but it is true of other professions and of the executives, the people upon whose intelligence the welfare of this country depends to a large extent."

"We don't know why men suffer more than women and why 'brainworkers' in the broadest sense withstand this disease less than the average male population. Apparently one of the causes is an individual becoming a professional or executive type is that his chance of succumbing to coronary disease is greatly enhanced."

Dr. Katz is director of cardiovascular research at the Michael Reese Hospital. Coronary disease includes not only coronary thrombosis, where a clot interferes with blood reaching heart muscles, and coronary occlusion, where the same arteries get too narrow, but most of the serious heart troubles. Dr. Katz advised against tobacco. But he said a cocktail or two helps relax the arteries supplying the heart. Also wine with meals should be encouraged.

"Live slow, play slow," he told the physicians. "Avoid peak loads, be carefree. Keep your weight down to normal."

"Take graded exercise, like walking and golf—but not to the point of shortness of breath. 'And never try competition—not even with your own golf par.'"

Dr. Boris B. Rubenstein, also of Michael Reese Hospital, said that contrary to popular belief, there are not 12 months in a year in which most women could become pregnant.

There are, he said, only seven or eight months on the average. And for some women much fewer. The reason is that women fail usually to produce ova, or eggs every month. Some women, he added, are affected by weather, so that they have no chances of motherhood in either very hot or very cold weather.

Helpful Description

Chicago, May 1 (AP)—Sgt. Edward O'Malley of central police asked fellow officers yesterday to help him find his car.

With embarrassment, he said they probably would be sure to notice it if it appears on the streets because it still bears 1946 license plates and a 1946 city vehicle sticker.

He said he had not obtained 1947 licenses because he expected to buy a new car soon.

Mrs. W. Dean Hays Entertains at Musical And Tea; Four Artists Heard in Program

Mrs. W. Dean Hays of 110 Fair street entertained at a musical and tea Wednesday afternoon in the Governor Clinton. The artists were wisely selected and presented a program thoroughly enjoyed by the audience. There were 170 guests.

Two of the artists were from Albany. Mrs. Viola Haines, a leading soprano of Albany, is at present soloist in the First Dutch Church of that city and is heard over the service broadcast of WABY every Sunday. She has been soloist in Troy and filled many engagements in oratorio, opera, radio, light opera and concert work in New York, North and South Carolina as well as the capital area.

She chose for her selections yesterday: When Love Is Kind, an English folk song; A Prayer for You by Tourn; There's a Lark in My Heart, Spross; The Three Cavaliers, an interesting Russian lullaby song by Schindler; The Wind in the South, Scott; and an encore, Dream by Bartlett. Her voice lent much charm to the songs.

Accompanying Mrs. Haines and also playing two groups of solos was Stuart Swart. He has studied with the late Dr. Frank Sill Rogers of Albany and also at the Fontainebleau, France. He was organist and choir director of the First Reformed Church of Albany from 1919 to 1928 and then served in a similar capacity at Westminster Presbyterian Church until 1938. He has served as accompanist and also conductor of the Mendelssohn Club of Albany. As a result he had played for many noted soloists and through these contacts Mr. Swart joined the orchestra during the period of 1938 to 1941 as accompanist under the direction of the Civic Concerts Bureau of the National Broadcasting Company. During the War Mr. Swart was engaged in production at the Schenectady plant of the General Electric Co. This season marks the return of Mr. Swart to his professional career which opened with an engagement in Town Hall as accompanist for Miss Sylvia Waser, violinist.

First Dutch Choir Entertained at Dinner

The Adult Choir of the First Dutch Reformed Church were entertained at a dinner party Wednesday night by the Consistory of the church at the Airport Inn. The choir met at the church house and proceeded to the inn where they were served a roast beef dinner. Table decorations were ferns and pink flowers.

Those attending were Mrs. Raymond Rignall, minister of music; the Misses Margaret Brundage, Shirley Freer, Audra Stinger, Caroline Little, Caroline A. Keeney, Doris Nichols, Gloria Molyneux, Elizabeth Roth, Ann Roth, Ann Page, Marjorie Hinkley, Edyth Juddick, Rita Larsen, Patricia Scholten, Louise Danford, the Misses Joseph Lawson, Erwin Mattice, Richard Telford, Alvin Fursten, Dale Swartzmiller, Ralph Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Martin, Henry C. Prigo, Joan Rich, William Lahl, William H. Iton, Hamilton Boyd, Warren Simmons, William Carr, Richard McKay and Donald Laidlaw.

Members of the music committee from the consistory who arranged for the dinner were John Haubenbeck, C. Herbert DeKeyser, Will O'The Wisp, Hasselmann.

Musical Program Given At Ladies' Night In Baptist Church

A musical program including solos by Mrs. James Gaddis and numbers by Roger Baer and his students featured the annual "Ladies' Night" program held by the First Baptist Men's Club Wednesday evening. A ham supper preceded the program at 6:30 o'clock.

Following the dinner, Paul Zucca led in group singing with Sam Scudder at the piano. Mrs. Gaddis then sang several well-chosen selections with Mr. Scudder accompanying her at the piano.

Students who appeared under the direction of Roger Baer included Howard Houghtaling, piano; Leonard Boice, piano accordion; Jeanne Brodhead, piano; Julia Sico, saxophone; Alma Rider, piano; George Beck, clarinet and Walter May, piano. The Rev. Edward V. Winder, pastor of the First Baptist Church, gave the invocation. The committee in charge of last night's affair included Herbert Jones, Chester Greene, Sherwood Lasher and George Matthews, dinner; Byron Chatham, Erwin Crow and Dean Bohnke, program.

Regional Artists Exhibit in Albany

Many regional artists are represented in the Albany Institute of History and Art's 12 Annual Exhibit of Artists of the Upper Hudson, which opened Wednesday in the state capital.

Among the most noteworthy of the 97 work by 71 artists is "Festus Youple and His Omen," an oil by George Ault of Woodstock. Others are three boldly executed oils by Mark Vukovic of Saugerties, two finely drawn works in tempera by Stanley Bates of Crayville and "Summer Stream" by William Waltemath of East Chatham.

Outstanding in the sculpture division is the carved ebony statue "Jamaican Mother and Child," by Harvey Fite of Saugerties.

Other artists include: Harry Lane, Catskill; Frank Gervasi, Cornwallville; Louis Durchein, Wassaic; Hazel B. Jackson, Newburgh; Morris Klein, Saugerties; Geraldine D. N. Acker and Lewis Rubenstein, Poughkeepsie, and Anna B. Carolan, Raymond Kargere, Julia S. Learycraft, Howard Mandel, Eugene McEvoy, Samuel Sigaloff and Kurt Shulzer, all of Woodstock.

The exhibit, which will continue until June, was selected from more than 600 applications by Peyton Boswell, Jr., writer, critic and publisher of The Art Digest.

Mrs. Terwilliger Talks of Senate House to Hospital Auxiliary

At the regular meeting of the Hospital Auxiliary held in the Nurses' Home, Tuesday, the speaker, Mrs. Mary Black Terwilliger gave an interesting description of a trip through the historic Kingston Senate House and Museum, which, though frequented by visitors to the city, is not so well known to residents.

At present the Senate House is being restored in the period style of 1676, the year the original structure was built. Donations of furniture of that era are welcome. One such gift recently received was a kas, sent by the Hardenburgh family of Rosendale.

During the business meeting, Mrs. M. B. Downer, the president, announced that the nominating committee would include Mrs. R. Frederic Chidsey, Mrs. A. W. Mott and Mrs. Reynolds Curry. A telegram was read from Fabian Russell, president of the Hospital board, saying he hoped to attend the Auxiliary's May meeting.

To make plans for the annual dinner for the Graduating Class of Nurses, the following committee was appointed: Mrs. W. H. Hilder and Mrs. Amos R. Newcombe, co-chairmen; Mrs. N. Le Van Haver, Mrs. Griffiths and Mrs. Kenneth Le Fever, assistants.

Musical Society Holds

Bookalogue Meeting

A bookalogue meeting was held by Kingston Musical Society Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. John Snyder, 135 Wall street when "The Opera" by Brockway and Weinstock was reviewed by Mrs. Lelloy Vogt and Mrs. Bonnard Forest.

Mrs. Forest gave her impressions of the book as to the creation of the opera, the first introduced in 1800. According to the book Verdi wrote the first opera, "Daphne" in 1800, the second was "Euridice" by Peri with Caccini making additions to it. Monteverdi started changes in the opera and in 1607 "Orpheus" was first heard. She said that glamor of opera depends on several things from the music, singers, impresarios and even the listeners. She also named some of the operas of the 18th century by Gluck, Rossini, Beethoven and Donizetti.

Mrs. Vogt spoke of the more recent operas of the last century and modern day. She discussed Gounod's Faust which he wrote at the age of 33, his Romeo and Juliet, works by Brodini, Mousset, and of Deems Taylor, Cadman, and George Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess," which she said might be introduced at the Metro-

Chairman of Sisterhood Show

Mrs. Harry Kaplan was chairman of the entertainment sponsored by the Sisterhood of St. Emmanuel at the social hall Saturday night. Mrs. Alfred Rindler was best man in the wedding ceremony and David Popick was the general master of ceremonies who has had a wide experience in this field professionally.

To reduce production man-hours, cups are being made in Australia without handles.

politan. She also spoke of the oratorio, "Temple of Minerva," written by Francis Hopkinson in commemoration of the alliance with France. She concluded that America is far behind other countries in opera works and one of the reasons may be the language.

The next meeting of the club at the home of Mrs. Henry Dunbar, president in Hurley, will be held Wednesday, May 21 instead of May 14. Each member will be given a guest privilege.

Business Girls Will Conduct Snack Bar For Youth Dances

At the regular meeting of the Business and Professional Girls' Club in the Y.W.C.A. Wednesday night, the group decided to conduct a snack bar Friday nights for the patrons of the young people's dances. Suggestions were also made for the fall conference and $5 was contributed to the Cancer Control fund.

The next meeting will be a birthday dinner and initiation. The Mother and Daughter banquet will be held the following week, May 14.

Miss Alberta Davis assisted by Miss Miriam Halloran had charge of the program, "A Day at a Summer Conference." The scene was suggested by the conference last year at Wells College for office workers. At the conclusion the club decided to continue to send delegates to the conferences.

The evening closed with committee meetings and games of bridge.

WRITING PAPER FOR CLUB USE

It is always hard to answer questions about color without samples to look at. The following letter comes from the secretary of a club: "The colors of our club are green and gold. Would it be proper for us to have green writing paper with a yellow letterhead or should the paper be white (or possibly cream) and the colors pronounced only in the design of the letterhead?"

Green and yellow lettering on either pale cream or white paper would be in best taste.

'You' Certainly Stands for Husband

Dear Mrs. Post: When someone, who is married, sends a note just to me and does not include my husband, but writes that she would like me to come to tea Sunday to meet some guests of theirs, my I assume that this also means my husband? Evidently her husband will be present—indicated by "theirs"—and it is a day when my husband as well as most men are home.

Answer: Under the circumstances you describe, the "you" in her letter certainly means you both and may be taken as such.

Multiple Signatures

Dear Mrs. Post: How should the card have been written with a wedding anniversary gift sent, by two single and two married children in a family, to someone who had been a great friend of their mother's? Someone suggested "The Henderson Family," but this would not make it clear that the married ones were meant, too, and I also the husband and wife of these two.

Answer: I think the card should have been written, "From Alice, Mary, Hilda and John, Sally and Albert, A 'great friend' of their mother's would have known they were all Hendersons."

Kingston Chapter Joins Newburgh In Sorority Day

Members of the Newburgh Beta Iota Chapter and New York Gamma Chi, Chapter 2392 of Kingston, held a joint celebration in honor of the 16th anniversary of the world-wide sorority at the Palatine Hotel in Newburgh Tuesday evening. Members of both chapters attended the annual Founder's Day dinner.

Adelaide Tompkins, president of the Newburgh chapter, presided throughout the banquet. Tables were candlelighted and decorated in black and gold, the sorority colors.

Following the dinner, Phyllis Cummings sang "From East to Western Skies," a song which won second prize in a recent Beta Sigma Phi song contest. Later on the program Jean Cummings sang "Oh, Shepherd of the Stars."

Other highlights of the program included a review of past activities sponsored by the Newburgh chapter which was given by Mrs. Neal Early. Mrs. Patricia Wallach, well-known figure in the Newburgh musical field, was guest speaker. She entertained the group with an interesting talk on personalities in the world of music.

After the presentation of various prizes to Exemplar members, the ritual of jewels took place for the installation of new pledges to the Newburgh sorority.

Personal Notes

Rio Short of Homes

Rio de Janeiro has one of the world's most acute housing shortages. Estimates are that the Brazilian capital's population has increased by half a million in the last few years and there is a grave lack of living space on all social levels. Both Rio and Sao Paulo found that inflation led to a flocking of country folk to the cities to seek their fortunes and hotels are jammed with would-be long-term residents. This is proving a serious handicap to Brazil's attempt to recapture much of the tourist trade.

Barone-Olmo Bout Tops B'nai B'rith Card Here Tonight

Brightwell Is Due For 2nd Match; First Fight 9 P.M.

Indications are that tonight's boxing card in the municipal auditorium will draw a large attendance, according to Dr. Murray Greene, who has been handling reserved seat arrangements for the show featuring Tony Barone and Lou Olmo.

This bout was arranged after Olmo scored a knockout over Eddie Morton, Albany welterweight star, in Poughkeepsie, recently. Olmo won the 147-pound Golden Gloves championship of Long Island, representing Valley Stream in the tournament.

Barone, the Schenectady boy who is one of the best drawing cards the Kingston club has, went to the finals in the national A.A.U. tournament at Boston, losing to Cleveland's Jackie Keough with whom he split in two bouts at the auditorium during the winter.

Other five-round bouts on tonight's bill, which give promise of action galore are:

Jimmy Brightwell, now of Newburgh, former Oklahoma Golden Gloves champion vs. Charlie Jones, middleweight Golden Gloves champion of Long Island.

Brightwell is the boxer who fought a sensational bout with Al Turbut of Rome several weeks ago, establishing himself as a favorite with many fans who are expected to see him in his second appearance tonight.

Joe Anisimo, Kingston middleweight knockout puncher vs. Herbert Allison, Valley Stream slugger.

Frankie Alvarez, Schenectady featherweight, who went to the finals in the nationals at Boston vs. Charlie Green of Valley Stream.

The first of three preliminaries supporting the other ring attractions will go on at 9 o'clock.

Failure of Top '46 Hurlers Main Puzzle of New Season

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

One of the enigmas of the young baseball campaign has been the poor pitching form displayed by Hal Newhouse and Howie Pollet, the premier southpaws of the major leagues.

Newhouse, Detroit's star hurler, who is generally rated as the best left-hander in the American League since Bob Grove, has lost his last three starts after opening the season for the Tigers with an auspicious shutout against the St. Louis Browns.

Pollet, the stylish St. Louis Cardinals twirler, who led all National League pitchers in games won and earned runs last year, in each of his three starts this season, has been belted out of the box and charged with the defeat.

Yesterday was the third straight time that Newhouse failed to go the route as the Boston Red Sox finished him off in the ninth inning to whip the Tigers 7-1. Mel Parnell, rookie southpaw ended the Red Sox four-game losing streak by holding the Bengals to four hits in registering his initial major league victory.

Breadon Is Alarmed

The skidding Cards took their seventh successive defeat, a 4-3 loss to the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds. The situation is so serious in St. Louis that President Sam Breadon announced he was flying to New York to see for himself just what is wrong with the world champions.

The Cards led until two out in the ninth yesterday, mainly because of home runs by Al (Red) Schoendienst and Stan Musial. The eighth-place Redbirds are now six full games behind the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Chicago Cubs, behind the four-hit pitching of rookie Doyle Lade, snapped the Dodgers' six-game winning streak 3-1. The defeat was Brooklyn's first in nine starts at Ebbets Field and narrowed its first place lead over the Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates to one game. The Dodgers' Jackie Robinson went hitless four times at bat, stretching his hitless streak to 20.

The Pirates had three big innings, a four run fifth and three run eighth and ninth innings to swamp the Phils in Philadelphia 11-4.

The Braves, behind Johnny Sain, topped the Cincinnati Reds in Boston 10-3. Sain fanned 10 batters and was helped by Bob Elliott, who got three hits and Earl Torgerson, who powered a homer and triple.

The New York Yankees' western invasion started in reverse as the Browns felled them 15-5 in St. Louis.

Pale Hose on Top

The Chicago White Sox climbed into first place in the American League past the Yankees by defeating the Washington Senators 5-2 at Comiskey Park. Bob Kennedy helped Johnny Dugan rack up his second win by punching out two doubles and driving in three runs.

The Philadelphia Athletics and Indians in Cleveland were rained out.

Brooklyn Won't Snicker at Lade After Four-Hitter

Brooklyn, May 1 (AP) — With First Baseman Ed Waitkus back in the lineup, the Chicago Cubs were hustling through infield practice. Nobody paid much attention when the Ebbets Field loudspeakers crackled, "Lade, pitching for Chicago."

"Who's that hum?" was a common observation. The Flatbush customers were flushed by eight home park victories without a miss. Dodger fans weren't in the mood to be bothered by some kid they had never heard of before.

As Lade swarmed to the task of earning his first big league victory and winning in the ninth on Bill Nicholson's long home run, the Dodgers realized they were seeing a real pitcher.

The husky 26-year-old right-hander from Fairbury, Neb., wound up with a four-hitter, deflecting two smashes through the box into infield outs and catching a sizzling liner off Jackie Robinson's bat that was tagged "base hit."

Next time they announce "Lade, pitching for Chicago," the Brooklyn customers will listen.

MUSIAL BEATS THE BALL FOR A CHANGE

The Cardinals' Stan Musial, most valuable National League player last year, came out of his 1947 slump with an in-the-park home run against the Giants at the Polo Grounds. Here he slides home just ahead of the ball (arrow). He led the league's hitters last year, but until he connected with this one was batting only .153 for the season. It didn't help the Cards, though; they lost, 4-3. (NEA Telephone)

Legion to Discuss Formation Of Baseball League Tonight

Jones Dairy Downs Ballston Spa Five In Exhibition Here

The possibility of forming an American Legion baseball league will be discussed this evening during a meeting scheduled for the American Legion building, West O'Reilly street. The meeting will start at 8 o'clock.

The session has been called by David Murphy, Lloyd Post, American Legion of Highland, who was recently appointed athletic officer for the county.

All chairmen or managers of Legion Post teams are cordially invited to attend this meeting. All those interested in softball also are requested to attend.

According to Mr. Murphy the contemplated league will be built along the lines similar to the recently completed Legion basketball circuit which proved to be a great success.

The dairymen riddled games of 932, 1000 and 931 for a terrific 2863 team triple while the upstarters poured out 830, 907 and 834 for a 2571 aggregate score.

Sangi led the local maple-busters with a 214 single in his first game. He came back with scores of 181 and 213 for his 608 triple. Jones, after smashing 180 in the first cracked 235 in the middle effort and wound up with 170 for a 585 three-timers.

Other scores rolled by the victors included Burr with 194-567, Larry Weishaup 200-657 and Harold Broskie 200-546. Blanch was high for the losers with 205-575.

Only One Ambition

Philadelphia, May 1 (AP)—The kid whose fielding has kept the Philadelphia Phillies from falling out of the league has only one baseball ambition—"to hit a home run." Twenty-eight-year-old Emil Verban, by consensus of National League managers and players the best fielding second baseman in the National League, is a frustrated hitter. "Nothing burns me up more," says Verban, "than when outfielders move in when I come to bat."

Prospect Is Found

Baltimore, May 1 (AP)—With Coach Cecil Isbell of the Baltimore Colts beating the bushes for talent, President Bob Rodenberg has unearthed a prospect here for the club in the All-America Football Conference. Rodenberg yesterday signed Bill Irwin, a six-foot end. Irwin ended his schooling upon graduation from Riverside Military Academy in New York. During the war he played outstanding ball with the navy team in Hawaii.

10 Teams Entered At First Meeting; Larkin Secretary

Jason Goumas, popular figure in softball circles of Kingston, was elected president of the City Softball League at a meeting held at the Y.M.C.A. Wednesday evening. "Eddie" Larkin was named as secretary.

Ten clubs signaled intentions of entering this season's play during last night's meeting. A special committee was named to discuss rules and a schedule prior to the next meeting which will be held at the "Y" next Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

At next week's session all rosters must be presented. The committee planning on the league rules include Billy Research, Bernard O'Brien, Tommy Larkin, Frank's, Jason Goumas, Larkin, and Charlie Horne, Hercules.

The teams entering last night were as follows:
Subway Grill, No. 1, T. Lewis.
Subway Grill, No. 2, V. Rickert.

Frank's Sport Shop, Jason Goumas.

Central Lunch, Neil Dubois, Wimp's, Bob Heston, Larkin's Market, B. Miller, Blue Bird, Bernie Schwartz, Fuller, D. Osterhout, Hercules, Charlie Horne, Research O'Brien, Milt Javard. According to information received at the meeting the loop will be without the use of both Lehigh and Barmann Parks.

Lapine Smashes 584 in Colonial

Charlotte Lapine, smashing a smooth string of 199-182-203, featured the high triple honors in the Colonial Women's League matches Wednesday night at the Central Recreation alleys with her 584 blast. Mrs. Lapine sparked Reinas to a pair of wins over the Mayettes.

Elizabeth Brock of Phelan & Cahills divided the spotlight by walking in with high single honors with her 214 opener. Her other marks were 140 and 147 for a 502 three-timer.

Other notable efforts turned in last night included Margie Janzen's 200-571, Rita Markle 203-368, Bertha Schaller 201-362, Louis Wolff 210-535, Marie O'Donnell 193-528, Dot Murphy 201-522, Rose Schatzel 201-521, Dot Hawling 181-520, Bev Markle 201-515 and Mildred Mackey 202-480.

No Hit Game

Carthage, Mo., May 1 (AP)—Jim Morris, a slender 21-year-old pitcher, hurled a no-hit, no-run game in a Kansas-Oklahoma Missouri League season opener last night to give Miami, Okla., a 12-0 victory over Carthage. He walked five, hit one batsman and struck out 10. Morris, a former marine, entered professional baseball last year with Topeka of the Western Association.

Miami, Fla.—Lulu Costantino, 194½, New York, outpointed Lino Garcia, 130½, Havana, 10.

Dempsey and Gibbons

Franks to Oppose Subway Musers In Double-Header

Frank's Sport Shop softball team will engage the Subway Grill musers in a double-header Sunday afternoon at the upper Forsyth Park diamond. The opener is slated for 2 o'clock.

Al Hunt and Ed Lowe have been primed to do the flinging for the Sportsmen while the Grillers are expected to counter with Walt Bigler and Ben Taitel.

Although lineups are subject to change by game time, the Sportsmen are due to open with Maxson, Lindhurst, Hughes and Geisler rounding out the infield while Tomaseski, Roe, Goumas or Norton hold down the picket line. Myers is expected to do the receiving.

The Subway club will have Cuiver Ten Brock, Owen Ten Brock, "Daisy" Schatzel and B. Schatzel on the defense. Hoffman, Fautz and Thomas will be in the outfield with Larkin behind the plate.

Two Games Out of First

Detroit, May 1 (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics were a mere two games out of first place in the American League today. But conversely, the A's were languishing in last place. That's how close the junior circuit race was after two weeks of the 1947 season.

St. Louis—Charley Riley, St. Louis, T.K.O. Phil Terranova, New York, 7.

Health Survey Recommends Five Regional Hospitals

Final Report Suggests They Be Established for Chronic Diseases, Not TB, Mentals

Albany, N. Y., May 1 (AP)—Establishment of five regional hospitals costing $9,000,000 to lead the way in a statewide drive to combat chronic diseases has been recommended to Governor Dewey by the State Health Preparedness Commission.

The commission, which expired yesterday after functioning since 1938, recommended in its final report that the 150-bed hospitals be located at Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Albany and for the New York suburban region, in New York.

A similar number of state-supported beds would be made available in New York for the city's chronic disease sufferers.

Cost of the program was estimated at $4,380,000 annually, half for operation of the hospitals and half for New York.

The state would finance construction of the hospitals and pay all maintenance and operating expenses not met by fees assessed patients.

The hospitals, besides treating chronic diseases exclusive of tuberculosis and mental illnesses, also would be research, teaching and consultation centers.

The commission declared that chronic diseases account for seven out of 10 New York deaths, that present facilities are "inadequate," and that state leadership was needed.

The report also recommended: Expansion of facilities for care of the chronically ill in general hospitals.

Expansion of home nursing. Designation of a state agency to develop advanced methods of preventing and treating such diseases.

Special studies of the program's relationship to chronic alcoholism and mid mental disturbances to determine need for facilities to care for both groups.

Republican Assemblyman Lee B. Mailer of Orange county, assembly majority leader, headed the committee.

New York (Jamaica Arena) — Maurice "Lefty" LuChance, 133½, Lishon Falls, Me., outpointed Julie Bort, 139½, Brooklyn, 8.

Binghamton, N. Y. — George Williams, 158½, Baltimore, outpointed Juan Serrano, 163½, Havana, 10.

The Y.M.C.A. provides recreation facilities for the youth of the city. Share in this program by supporting the financial drive.

Leo Is Laraine's Ideal, She Says At Court Hearing

Los Angeles, May 1 (AP)—Whatever Leo Durocher's current status in the rough and ready world of baseball, to tender-eyed Laraine Day, the film actress, he represents a lifetime ideal.

She testified yesterday near the conclusion of a court ordered inquiry into her American and Mexican divorces from J. Ray Hendricks, and subsequent marriage to the suspended Brooklyn Dodgers' manager.

"I guess I've been in love with Mr. Durocher all my life," she said in reply to a question by Maurice Rose, one of three attorneys appointed by the court to prosecute charges of fraud and collusion in obtaining her California divorce.

"He just happened to fit into my ideal," she continued. "I've had an ideal all my life about the kind of man I'd like to marry."

"I just gradually realized he fit into my ideal. He was the man I wanted to live with, and I knew he would give my adopted children a wonderful home."

She testified that Hendricks' alleged drunkenness had often embarrassed her and that once when she had reproached him, he said "all right, I'll leave."

"I said, 'Ray, I think I'm in love with Mr. Durocher.'" (a family friend), she testified.

She said Hendricks then called Durocher and asked him "Leo, are you in love with my wife?" Durocher then came to the house, she testified and told Hendricks he loved Miss Day "more than anything in the world."

"It's my fault, not yours, Leo," she quoted Hendricks as saying.

Rose pressed the actress to fix a time when she fell in love with Durocher, and finally her attorney, Isaac Pacht, interrupted with "when a woman falls in love with a man it is not a matter of mathematical calculation." Judge Ingall W. Paul upheld his objection.

The hearing is on Superior Judge George A. Dockweiler's demand that the interlocutory divorce decree be awarded Miss Day last January be set aside on the grounds of fraud and collusion.

Both sides rested shortly after Miss Day's testimony, and final arguments got under way this morning.

Actress Awaits Birth
Santa Ana, Calif., May 1 (AP)—Actress Bette Davis awaited childbirth in a flower-bedecked two-room suite at Santa Ana Community Hospital today. Her physician Dr. Vincent Carroll, expected to deliver the baby by Caesarean section sometime today. The 39-year-old actress completed shopping for the event shortly before entering the hospital last night. She and her husband, William Grant Sherry, to whom she was married in 1945, have a nursery waiting in their recently purchased home at nearby Laguna Beach, Calif. Among the flowers was a gardenia arrangement from Miss Davis' mother with a card saying: "Will be in the front row as always."

Tunganyika's sisal industry is operating at capacity, limited only by labor supply.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

Awkward Location
Seaside, Ore., May 1 (AP)—Councilmen are puzzled by the legal problem they will have if construction of an $80,000 public auditorium is approved in a special May 20 election.

City Attorney Thomas Chave, Jr., says an erroneous site description on the ballot puts the building in the center of Edgewood street.

Moving Day
Shevlin, Ore., May 1 (AP)—This little logging town—the pool hall, postoffice, gift shop, power plant and all—is getting ready to move again.

Twenty-six years ago a lumber company (Shevlin-Hixson) moved from Shevlin, Minn., and its town came along to the forests of Oregon. The town spent 22 years at three locations and four at this northern Klamath county site.

Some thirty miles southeast of here where there's a fresh stand of timber, streets and water mains are being laid out and early in June Shevlin and its 600 inhabitants—houses and all—will be at home again, after a rail trip by plane.

Pioneer Spirit 1947
Salt Lake City, May 1 (AP)—The Sons of Utah Pioneers whose ancestors crossed the plains in ox carts and on foot in 1847, will reenact the trek in a series of dramatizations this summer at five points between Nauvoo, Ill., and Salt Lake City.

But in the event of rain the performances will be given indoors, Chairman D. James Cannon has announced.

Not the Athletic Type
Chicago, May 1 (AP)—Mabel Reynolds, 22, said a man approached her and "got fresh" just as she was about to enter a bakery. She screamed. Four husky bakers seized rolling pins and ran to her aid.

But the "masher" fled and the bakers were unable to catch him. "Too much pastry," they explained, gasping for breath after the chase.
